The Assembly spent half an hour in devotional exercises.

Rev. Wm. S. Moffet, delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, presented the Christian salutations of the body he represented, and the Moderator responded in the name of the Assembly. At the close of the addresses, Rev. J. B. Dales, D. D., led the Assembly in prayer.

The Moderator appointed Rev. J. D. Gibson, D. D., to preside in the conference this evening.

After singing Psalm 87, and prayer by Rev. Wm. S. Moffet, the Assembly adjcurned.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Asembly met and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The evening was spent in a conference on the Foreign Mission work of the Church, Rev. John D. Gibson, D. D., in the chair.

After prayer by Rev. C. H. Mitchell, the Assembly adjourned.

FRIDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Wellington Wright.

The roll was called and the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A list of licensures was presented and referred to the Committee on the Board of Education.

A paper suggesting subjects to be considered in the conference on Monday evening was presented and referred to the Committee on Devotional Exercises.

The report on the office of the Deacon, laid on the table by the last Assembly, was taken up. Pending the discussion of this report, the time for the order of the day having arrived, the Assembly took up the report of the Committee on Temperance, which, after discussion, was referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Revs. William Findley, D. D., W. J. McAllister, James Bruce, James Harper, D. D., William Wishart, D. D. The report of this Special Committee was made the order of the day for to-morrow at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Resumed the consideration of the report on the office of the Deacon. The resolutions appended to this report were adopted. The Clerks were directed to publish in the minutes only these resolutions. They are as follows:

RESOLUTIONS ON THE OFFICE OF THE DEACON.

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly heartily approving of the teaching of its subordinate standards touching the divine institution and permanent obligation of the office of the Deacon, and being persuaded also that it is of great importance for the welfare of the Church that the teaching of these standards on this subject be reduced to practice, hereby enjoins Synods, Presbyteries and Sessions to adopt measures with all-becoming promptitude to have Deacons appointed in the different congregations of the Church in the manner prescribed in the Book of Government and Discipline.

2. That Presbyteries be, and they are hereby directed to report to the General Assembly from time to time the progress made in carrying into effect, in their respective bounds, the direction just given.

3. That Synods be, and they hereby are urged to take immediate steps for securing within their respective limits such civil legislation in regard to the tenure of ecclesiastical property, as may be requisite to enable congregations to commit to Deacons the charge which now rests upon ordinary trustees.

4. That while the General Assembly does not find in Scripture sufficient authority for the ordination of women to the office of Deacon, it is convinced that pious women may, with profit to themselves, and with great advantage to the cause of suffering humanity and of Christ, be organized to act as assistants of the Deacon; it being understood, however, that those, so devoting themselves and banded together, shall not be formed into sisterhoods living apart from ordinary society after the manner of certain Popish devotees, or even of some associations found in certain denominations of the Protestant Church.

The report of the Committee on the Salaries of the Officers of the Assembly, Secretaries, &c., was after discussion, referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Revs. D. M. Ure, J. P. Sankey, D. D., J. N. Dick, D. D., Messrs. James McCutcheon, T. J. Gillespie.

A paper on the duties of Financial Agents and the Treasurers of Sessions was referred to the Committee on Finance.

A paper in reference to the case of a student of theology was referred to the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions.

A conference on the Board of Church Extension was made the order of the day for Monday at 10 o'clock, A. M.

A memorial from the Presbyteries of San Francisco and Oregon, in relation to the meeting of the Synod of the Pacific, was read and referred to the Judicial Committee.

The remainder of the morning session was spent in devotional exercises.

After prayer by Rev. J. C. Elliott, the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Andrew Watson, D. D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

On the recommendation of the Committee on Sabbath Schools, the consideration of the report of this Committee was made the order of the day for Monday evening immediately after the reading of the minutes.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented the following report, which was adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises recommend the following:

1st. At each forenoon and afternoon session of the Assembly from fifteen to thirty minutes be spent in devotional exercises at such times as the Moderator may suggest.

2d. That Rev. W. G. Moorehead, D. D., be appointed the Moderator's Alternate, to preach the opening sermon at the next meeting of the General Assembly.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises.

New Wilmington, Pa., was chosen as the place for the next meeting of the General Assembly; and 2:30 o'clock, P. M. of the fourth Wednesday of May, 1879, was fixed as the time.

The General Committee of Home Missions was directed to meet in the First Church, Mercer, Pa., at 2:30 o'clock, P. M. on the third Wednesday of May, 1879.

The former action of the Assembly setting apart Monday evening for a conference on the finances of the Church was reconsidered, and the Assembly went into conference on that subject, Rev. A. H. Elder in the chair. At the close of the meeting the Chairman reported that the Assembly had participated in a pleasant and profitable conference; that the conference now rises, but reports nothing to the Assembly for action. This report was accepted.

The Moderator appointed Rev. T. H. Hanna to preside in the conference this evening.

After prayer by Rev. J. W. Taylor, the Assembly adjourned.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. D. W. McLane.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Proceeded to the order of the day, viz: a conference on the Home Mission work of the Church, Rev. T. H. Hanna in the chair.

The order of the day for to-morrow at 10 o'clock, A. M. was changed from a conference on Temperance to the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions.

After prayer by Rev. J. G. Brown, D. D., the Assembly adjourned.

SATURDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. Hugh Sturgeon.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., delegate to the Presbyterian Churches of Scotland and Ireland, was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the memorials from the First Presbytery of Ohio and the Presbytery of Mansfield, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES ON THE CONSOLIDATION OF CERTAIN BOARDS.

The First Presbytery of Ohio memoralized the Assembly: 1. For the consolidation of the Boards of Home Missions, Church Extension and Freedmen's Missions; 2. The organization of a new Board, consisting of eighteen members—two from each Synod, nominated by the several Synods, and confirmed by the Assembly, to serve for a term of six years, meeting two weeks before each Assembly and performing the duties now performed by the local Boards and the General Committee of Home Missions; 3. The election of a General Secretary, to be a member of this new Board ex officio to serve for — years, who shall give his undivided attention to the interests of this work, and be clothed with full power to act in all cases of emergency that may arise during the year, not provided for by the general Board.

The change here proposed is a radical one, revolutionizing to some extent the present method of carrying on the operations of the Mission work of the Church in our own land. It is not claimed that the present system is faultless, or that no change for the better can be made; yet it is believed that under the existing arrangement the work of the Church is well done, and our Home Mission system has even attracted the attention of some other branches of the Church. We would therefore urge caution and due deliberation. It is not difficult to see that serious objections may be urged against the arrangement proposed. And we believe that no such change should be made without a full and fair expression of the mind of the whole Church. We would therefore offer the following:

Resolved, That the memorial of the First Presbytery of Ohio be published, and that the several Presbyteries report their views on this subject to the next Assembly for final action.

The Presbytery of Mansfield indorses the memorial of the First Presbytery of Ohio, and asks also that a change be made in the method of carrying on the Home Mission work: 1. By carefully distinguishing between vacancies which do not require aid and Mission stations; and also between unsettled ministers and licentiates and those properly enrolled as missionaries; 2. By leaving vacancies, and unsettled ministers and licentiates not enrolled as missionaries, entirely under the control of their own Presbyteries; 3. By organizing a corps of Home Missionaries, carefully selected, and who will agree to be absolutely subject to the appointment of the Board and Assembly, and who shall receive fixed, uniform and liberal salaries; 4. By appointing missionaries to Mission stations; 5. By requiring Mission stations to pay their contributions for the support of the gospel directly to the treasury of the Home Mission Board.

Your Committee are disposed to regard this part of the memorial with favor, but amid the pressure of business in the Assembly and with the limited time at their disposal, they do not feel competent to give to the subject that attention which its importance demands. They would therefore recommend that final action in this matter be delayed until the whole subject can be carefully considered and a plan fully matured which will be likely to be satisfactory to the Church. They would therefore offer for adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed to perfect a plan by which the change proposed by the Presbytery of Mansfield may be carried out; that this Committee publish their report in the papers of the Church by the first of February next; and that the several Presbyteries present their views on the subject to the next Assembly.

After spending some time in devotional exercises, proceeded to the order of the day, viz: the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. Pending the discussion of the third resolution of Part IV., the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Rev. G. W. Torrence.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. C. Wilson.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The credentials of Rev. John Steele, D. D., delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, were presented, and the hearing of the delegate was made the order of the day for Monday at 11:15 o'clock, A. M.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions was made the order of the day for Monday at 2:30 o'clock, P. M.

Took up the order of "Unfinished Business," viz: the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. This report was amended and adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The Committee, in presenting their report, deem it unnecessary to make any attempt to give information to the Assembly in relation to this important work of the Church during the past year, as its present condition and future prospects are presented in full in the report of the Board, now in your hands. Still, there are some facts of interest to which we would respectfully call your attention.

There has been a slight increase in the number of Mission stations under the care of the Board, and aid has been granted to 194 stations under the care of 45 Presbyteries.

It is with gratitude that we make mention of the fact that there has been a corresponding increase in the attendance on divine service reported. In these stations a membership of 9,438 is reported, an average attendance of 16,337. And the additions have been fully up to the average of the whole Church.

In the Sabbath Schools connected with these stations, there has been an average attendance of 9,704 pupils, which is a better average than that of the whole Church. This certainly speaks well for the activity and enterprise of these Missions, for their labor is performed in the absence of many opportunities possessed by the stronger churches.

The stations have contributed during the year to the Boards of the Church $4,580, and for the support of their own pastors and missionaries almost $50,000.

In general, we may say, that there has been an advance in the Mission stations, especially in the Sabbath School work. But there has not been such advance as was possible, if the available force of the Church had been fully employed. You will recall with sorrow the recollections of the report last year that so many of our ministers and probationers have been unemployed. It is greatly to be feared that a much larger number will be unemployed during the coming year. There was an available force, equal to 123 men, presented to the Board, but as only 68 men were asked for, an available force, equal to 45 men, has been passed over, or set aside. Brethren, these things ought not so to be. The fields are growing whiter than ever before. Every year the necessity for the gospel as a conserving power is made more apparent; and the social element needs this conserving power more to-day than ever before in the history of our nation. The work of this Board appeals to the patriotism of every truly loyal citizen, as universal suffrage, which is an established principle in our government, without the moral and religious education of the heart, is a universal curse.

In relation to the past financial condition of the Board, it is not necessary that we should speak, but to its demands for the coming year we would call the special attention of the Church. The Board asks this year a larger sum than usual—perhaps a demand larger than for years—$47,500 were asked for by these Missions, but only $42,125 were granted. Yet this is about $3,000 in excess of the appropriation granted last year. This matter has called forth earnest thought and prayer on the part of all. It has not been done hastily, or carelessly, and we do not think that this conclusion was reached as much from pressure from without as from pressure within—the pressure of conscience and the teachings of God in His providence. The territory that needs to be conquered for Christ, the waiting laborers who stand ready to "gather them in," and the weak and struggling bands, all call on you, fathers and brethren, to give your influence, your prayers and your efforts in their behalf.

Your Committee would respectfully recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1st. That this Assembly hereby expresses its high appreciation of the efficiency with which the work of this Board is conducted, and that we give thanks to God for the blessing that has manifestly rested on the labors of the missionaries during the past year.

2d. That the work of the Board of Home Missions for the year now closing, as set forth in their report, be approved.

3d. That the thanks of this Assembly are due and are hereby tendered to the different societies and individuals mentioned in the report of the Board, who during the year have rendered such timely and much needed help.

4th. That the congregations in the Presbytery of Boston, receiving aid, be required, as in all similar cases elsewhere, to give a deed in fee simple for the church property of each to the Trustees of the General Assembly.

5th. That the report of the General Committee herewith submitted be adopted.

6th. That the Assembly earnestly recommend the holding of conferences by our Presbyteries in connection with their regular meetings with a view of interesting and instructing the people in this important department of work committed to the Church.

7th. Inasmuch as a very considerable number of the Sabbath Schools of the Church have shown a deep interest in the Warm Spring Indian Mission, therefore

Resolved, That we reaffirm the action of last year by again recommending the Mission to our Sabbath Schools.

8th. That in view of the great work to be done and the number of men that are left unemployed, it is earnestly recommended that an effort be made to raise an additional sum of at least $5,000 to be expended under the direction of the Board, in the employment of men not now assigned.

9th. That the recommendation contained in the report of the Board of Home Missions—"that the Board shall have entire control of all special missions, with power to grant all appropriations and designate all missionaries"—be referred to the Special Committee to prepare a plan for rearranging the work of the Board of Home Missions.

10th. Your Committee recognize in the subject matter of the memorial of the First and Second Presbyteries of New York, an important work and a promising field. Possibly we have permitted the best seed time to pass by, and consequently we may not enjoy so rich a harvest as we otherwise might have had; but it may not be too late yet. Our churches in that field are probably in better condition now than ever before to help forward the work. It is essential, however, to success, that there be harmony and full sympathy with our principles and practices as a Church. As, however, the enterprise has not been matured as to plan, or means, and we have neither time nor facilities for maturing any system here, we would recommend that this whole subject be referred to the Board of Home Missions, with power to act in connection with the above named Presbyteries.

The Moderator nominated and the Assembly confirmed the following as the Committee to prepare a plan for rearranging the work of the Board of Home Missions: Revs. D. A. Wallace, D. D., J. W. Bain, J. F. Hutchison, Messrs. Thomas L. Findley, Wm. E. Brown.

After prayer by Rev. J. H. Elliott, the Assembly adjourned.

MONDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. M. Atchison.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee appointed to further the organization of Women's Missionary Societies presented a report, which was referred to the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions.

A paper on the impropriety of unlicensed students preaching was presented and referred to the Judicial Committee.

A paper in relation to the United Presbyterian Church of Boston, Mass., was read and referred to the Committee on the Board of Church Extension.

The Judicial Committee presented the following report on the Memorials of the Presbyteries of San Francisco and Oregon, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE ON THE MEMORIAL OF THE PRESBYTERIES OF SAN FRANCISCO AND OREGON.

The Judicial Committee to which was referred a memorial from the Presbyteries of San Francisco and Oregon, asking that the law of the Church be so modified as to allow the Synod of the Pacific to meet biennially instead of annually, begs leave to report as follows:

The vast extent of the territory embraced within the bounds of the Synod aforenamed and the fact that it consists at present of only two Presbyteries seem sufficient reasons for granting the petition of the memorialists, provided this can be done in an orderly, constitutional way.

It is a law of our Church "that the Synod shall convene at least once every year." It is further one of the regulations adopted by the Church that the Synods shall submit their records annually to the inspection of the General Assembly (see Book of Government and Discipline, Part I, Chapter V, Article 3, Sections 5 and 7.) Exemption from the authority of these rules, it is not the prerogative of the Assembly to grant; but the question can be submitted to Presbyteries whether or not an exception to the control of the organic law shall be made in favor of the Synod of the Pacific. This, though a somewhat circuitous, is at least a constitutional way of securing or seeking the end in view.

The following resolution is therefore proposed for adoption, namely:

Resolved, That this question be overtured to all the Presbyteries with instructions that they report their mind thereon to the next Assembly: "Shall the Law of the Church touching the meeting of Synods be, in the case of the Synod of the Pacific, suspended so far as to permit said Synod, until otherwise ordered by the Assembly or desired by the Synod itself, to meet only once in two years instead of every year?"

The Second Clerk was directed to prepare and distribute blanks for the overtures to the Presbyteries.

Proceeded to the order of the day, viz.: a conference on the work of the Board of Church Extension, Rev. D. M. Ure in the chair.

Rev. John Steele, D. D., delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, presented the Christian salutations of the body he represented, and the Moderator replied in the name of the Assembly.

After prayer by Rev. John Steele, D. D., the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. Y. Ashenhust.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A paper relating to the printing of the Psalm Book was read and referred to the Committee on the Board of Publication.

A copy of the proceedings of the First General Presbyterian Council was presented to the Assembly through Rev. George D. Mathews, Clerk of said Council. This volume, together with an accompanying letter, was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following partial report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE ON THE REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

It is specially gratifying that this Society is still prosecuting its work—that it has secured, during the past year, the funds required for obtaining a fire-proof building, and that it has been so successful in adding to its stores of matter so interesting and important to all Presbyterian bodies. Already its collections are invaluable for reference to any one desirous of preparing histories, memoirs, or other works connected with the various branches of the Presbyterian Church in this country.

The Society is anxious to increase its collection of Presbyterian writings, histories of churches, memoirs, pamphlets, sermons, portraits, relics and other matters of general interest and value. It is also to be specially noticed that the great and persistent desire of this Society is not only to make the most full and complete collection of these things, but also to secure a building in which all these gatherings may be properly arranged for general use, and have a well secured and certain preservation. That desire is now in the way of being realized and thus the ability of the Society to answer its leading objects is being happily increased.

The only other need of the Society is a fund for its proper endowment. Such a fund would enable it to carry on all its operations with ease, efficiency and success, and is therefore specially desired.

Your Committee recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly have heard with pleasure the success of the Presbyterian Historical Society in its efforts during the past year.

2. That it be commended still to our people for donations to its collections and and for funds for its endowment.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Missions to the Freedmen was made the order of the day for to-morrow at 10 o'clock, A. M., or at the conclusion of the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions.

The Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions presented their report. Pending the discussion of the ninth resolution, the hour of adjournment arrived, and the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. S. B. Reed.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. R. Kyle.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Sabbath Schools presented their report. After the adoption of the first four resolutions, the Assembly adjourned with prayer by Rev. W. J. Gillespie.

TUESDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. T. A. Scott.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension was made the order of the day for this afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

The report of Rev. A. D. Clark, D. D., delegate to the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Committee of Conference with a Committee of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

During the past year correspondence has been held with some brethren of that Synod, and though no meetings of the committees have been held, yet it is hoped the day is gradually drawing on when the two Churches will be able to realize in all the spirit of their oneness in profession and worship, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.

Your Committee recommend the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee of last year be continued for any conference or work to which they may be called with a similar Committee of this Synod.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following report, which was amended and adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE.

The following delegates, appointed at the last Assembly, attended to the service required: Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., to the Presbyterian Churches of Scotland and Ireland; Rev. W. J. Gillespie, to the Presbyterian Church of Canada; Rev. D. Strang, to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South; Rev. A. D. Clark, D. D., to the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and Rev. E. T. Jeffers, D. D., to the Presbyterian Church of the United States. Your Committee recommend that their conduct be approved.

In regard to the Presbyterian Council, your Committee find that Revs. D. R. Kerr, D. D., J. T. Cooper, D. D., J. T. McClure, D. D., J. C. Boyd, D. E. Shaw, and J. A. Wilson, attended upon its sessions and participated actively and honorably in its proceedings. The various subjects considered by the Council were of interest and importance, and it is hoped the results will be found of service to the cause of Christ and of Presbyterianism throughout the world. It is, however, deemed unnecessary for the Assembly to give any special deliverance upon the action of the Council at present, further than to express the conviction that there should not be any relaxing of the principles or usages of our profession, so far as any thing has yet been developed. But in view of the importance of the objects aimed at by the Council, your Committee recommend the following resolutions;

Resolved, 1st. That delegates be appointed to the Council that is to convene in the city of Philadelphia in 1880.

2d. That while gratified to know that during the late meeting the Council used in its exercise of praise only the Psalms of Scripture, the Assembly regrets that no constitutional provision has been made for the continuance of this practice and no definite pledge given to that effect, and hereby instructs its delegates to the meeting of 1880, to use their influence to have this matter adjusted in accordance with the action of the Assembly of 1875.

3d. That the thanks of the Assembly be returned to the Business Committee of the Council through the Rev. G. D. Mathews, of New York, for the copy of the proceedings of the Council which was presented by their direction to this Assembly.

Your Committee having received from the Scotch members of the Committee of the General Presbyterian Council to advise with weak and struggling Churches on the continent of Europe, an appeal to the Presbyterian Churches of Great Britain, Ireland and America on behalf of the pastors of the Waldensian Church in Italy, recommend the following resolution:

Resolved, That the condition and the wants of the pastors of the Waldensian Churches be commended to the attention and contributions of our Churches.

It having been suggested that as the different Presbyterian bodies will be represented in the Triennial Councils which are proposed to be held, the present system of annual correspondence by delegates to each other's Assemblies or Synods shall be dispensed with, your Committee recommend the following:

Resolved, 1. That after the present year the appointment of delegates to other Churches be suspended, with the exception of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

2. That the following appointments be made by this Assembly:

To the Associate Reformed Synod of the South—Rev. James Kelso, Principal; Rev. W. L. Wallace, Alternate.

To the Reformed Church—Rev. J. A. Williamson, Principal; and Rev. Henry Gordon, Alternate.

The nomination of delegates to the Second General Presbyterian Council was referred to a Special Committee, with instruction to report to the next General Assembly. Revs. T. H. Hanna, David Paul, D. D., Wm. H. McFarland, J. R. Johnston, W. H. French, D. D., were appointed this Committee.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. This report was amended and adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Committee, to whom the report of the Board of Foreign Missions and other papers relating to the same general subject were referred, beg leave to offer the following:

The important work entrusted to this Board has been faithfully and earnestly prosecuted during the past year, as their very full and satisfactory report, in the hands of the members of the Assembly, shows.

In pursuance of the directions of the last General Assembly, the Board made the transfer of our Mission in Syria to the Assembly of the Irish Presbyterian Church, the Rev. John Crawford remaining under the new management, Miss Frazier being removed to Egypt; and that of China to California.

The various papers and recommendations referred have been carefully considered by your Committee, and while not presuming that the action suggested with respect to these grave and solemn matters is the wisest in the premises, the Committee have agreed to present the appended resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That it is with profound gratitude and joy we record the goodness of the Lord in preserving the lives of our missionaries, and in good degree their health also, and in giving manifold and precious evidences of the Divine approval and blessing upon their labors.

2. That the Assembly express their high appreciation of the efficient and timely aid which the various societies, missionary organizations and individuals, both at home and abroad, have so generously rendered our foreign work.

3. That the Assembly, recognizing the importance of the results achieved by the Women's Missionary Societies, reappoint the committee of previous years (substituting the names of Mrs. John A. Gordon and Mrs. B. F. Leitch, instead of Miss Eliza Frazier and Mrs. Scott, formerly Miss Bell, owing to the ill health of the one and the removal of the other), to continue the work of organizing such Societies, and invite the Christian women of our whole Church to undertake, among the objects of their activity in furtherance of our work at home and abroad, the support of female missionaries and teachers, and the erection of buildings for girls' schools in the respective fields of Egypt and India.

4. That, in order to secure unity of purpose and action in all our operations, the Assembly direct that no work in behalf of the Foreign Mission cause be undertaken by Women's Missionary Societies, or any other society, apart from and independent of the Board of Foreign Missions, and that such work shall be taken up only when asked for by the missions in the foreign field and sanctioned by the Board.

5. That, in view of the great need of immediate reinforcements in India and Egypt, the Board be authorized to send out one new male missionary and two new female missionaries to each of those missions as soon as practicable.

6. That pastors be earnestly urged to remind their congregations that withdrawal from Syria and China means no retrenchment or contraction of our foreign work, but concentration and greater thoroughness in the cultivation of the fields presently occupied.

7. That the Board be, and hereby is, directed to place the proceeds resulting from the sale of the Bludan property in Syria, together with the stock of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Bank, Pittsburgh, to the credit of the Investment Fund.

8. That in reply to the petition of Mr. A. B. Caldwell to be permitted to pursue his theological studies under the direction of the Seminary in Sealkote, the Assembly is of opinion that he should spend at least one year of theological study in this country, previous to his departure for India.

9. That the Mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles be transferred from the care of the Board of Foreign Missions to the Presbytery of San Francisco, subject to the control of the Assembly, so soon as said Presbytery secure an Act of Incorporation, and that the Presbytery be required to report annually to the General Assembly specially as to this Mission.

10. That the money received from the sale of the Mission property in China be invested by the Presbytery of San Francisco, when incorporated, under the direction of the Trustees of the General Assembly, for the exclusive use and benefit of the Mission to the Chinese, no part of the principal to be used except for needed permanent buildings for the use of the Mission, and that the Treasurer of the Presbytery be required to give bonds to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America.

11. That Rev. J. C. Nevin be directed to invest the funds arising from the sale of the China Mission buildings in such way as the Board of Foreign Missions may direct, until the Presbytery of San Francisco becomes a corporate body and fully prepared to take charge of said funds.

12. That the appointment of the teacher and the question of salary be referred to the Presbytery of San Francisco.

13. That the following appropriations to the Foreign Field be made:

To Egypt	$27,720 00
To India	22,500 00
To send out new Missionaries	3,000 00
To return any now in this country to their fields	1,500 00
To support Missionaries' Children in this country and Scotland	1,500 00
To refund money borrowed by the Board	5,000 00
To the Chinese Mission in California	1,600 00
To Miscellaneous	1,500 00
Total	$64,320 00

14. That the Board be instructed to prepare such rules and regulations in reference to the furloughs of missionaries as may be just to them and to the Church at large, and report the same to the next General Assembly.

15. That the Board be directed to publish 3,000 copies of the Annual Report, and that all pastors be urged to diffuse the information contained in it among their people.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises.

The nomination of the Committees on Old Records, on Narrative and State of Religion, on Credentials and on Reduction of Railroad Fare, was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Committee on the Board of Missions to the Freedmen presented their report. Pending the adoption of this report, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. Wm. Wishart, D. D.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. George C. Vincent, D. D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Took up unfinished business, viz.: the report of the Standing Committee on Sabbath Schools, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The Committee on Sabbath Schools would respectfully report that they have had referred to them for consideration the reports of the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools, and the Committee on a Sabbath School Paper, and find that these Committees, appointed by the last General Assembly, have so carefully reviewed the whole field, and so judiciously performed the work assigned them, that but little remains for us to do but adopt, in the main, their suggestions, as our report to you.

We would first express our gratitude to God for the encouraging advancement made during the past year in this most important branch of the Church's work, but as suggested by the Permanent Committee, there remaineth much land to be possessed, and we earnestly urge on all Presbyteries and congregations such attention to the recommendations of the General Assembly already given on this subject, as will lead the Church on, as she is well able, to the possession of the land before her.

Noticing that but 11,000 of the 78,000 members of the Church are in the Sabbath Schools, your Committee recommend the following as the sense of this Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That the adult members of the Church be urged to embrace the opportunity for Bible study afforded by the Sabbath School, and thus not only obtain for themselves a better acquaintance with the Scriptures, but by their presence there remove one of the greatest hindrances to the attendance and retention of the children and youth in our Sabbath Schools.

Noticing again that about one-half of the contributions of the schools is applied to the current expenses, Resolved,

2. That the Schools be recommended to apply all their contributions to general missionary and benevolent purposes, as best calculated to cultivate unselfish liberality on the part of the youth, and look to the general funds of the congregation for the current expenses of the School.

Realizing the vital importance of a pure literature for our youth, Resolved,

3. That when libraries are used, and we recommend them in missionary schools especially, the most careful attention be given to the selection of the books distributed.

Realizing, as we do, the importance of good, attractive music, Resolved,

4. That, in accordance with the recommendation made, a Committee, to consist of Revs. D. A. Duff, W. J. Robinson, J. T. McClure, D. D., J. F. Hutchison, R. B. Taggart, and Mr. R. S. Wallace, be appointed to prepare and publish a book of selections of Psalms set to music specially for the Sabbath Schools, it being understood that the versions used be such as the Church has authorized.

That our Catechism and distinctive doctrines may have a sure and prominent place in our Sabbath School instruction, Resolved,

5. That the persons, selected to prepare the lessons, be also directed to prepare lessons on the Catechism and doctrines of the Church, to be taught in connection with the International lessons.

6. That thanks be given to Revs. Robert Stewart, D. D., and John Morrow, for their faithful and efficient service in the preparation of the lessons for the past year.

7. That thanks be given to the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools for the past year, and that Revs. John S. Sands, J. A. Gordon, E. S. McKitrick, J. M. Fulton and Messrs. T. J. Gillespie, H. J. Murdoch, and A. P. Burchfield, be constituted the Committee for the coming year.

8. That the report of the Permanent Committee be printed in full in the Minutes of the Assembly.

9. That the office of Presbyterial Superintendent of Sabbath Schools be continued, that Presbyterial conventions be held under the direction of the Superintendents, and that the Permanent Committee be directed to call a convention of Presbyterial Superintendents, at such time and place as may seem best, to be under the general direction of said Committee.

With regard to the establishment of a Sabbath School Paper, we recommend the following:

Resolved, That we regard the publication of a weekly Sabbath School Paper under the direction of the Board of Publication at this time as inexpedient, inasmuch as such a publication can be most successfully conducted as a private enterprise.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension exists for the help of weak congregations and mission stations, in providing for themselves houses of worship. As this is necessary to the success of our missions in all parts of the country, and especially throughout the great west, the work of this Board is of the utmost importance, and richly deserves the prayers, co-operation, and large liberality of our ministers and people.

The business of the Board during the past year, as detailed in its report and papers submitted to our consideration, has been conducted, we think, with remarkable wisdom, efficiency and correctness. Important and dependent mission stations, and congregations, crippled by unlooked for adversities, from Canada to California, have received material assistance. Debts have been provided for. Ruins have been repaired. Just but disputed claims have been collected. Difficulties threatening serious consequences to congregations have been adjusted. Titles and rights to property have been guarded and strengthened.

We regret to observe that only about half of the appropriation voted to this Board by the last Assembly has been contributed in the course of the year. In consequence its usefulness has been much restricted.

The Assembly is asked to decide as to the justness of a claim on the treasury of the Board, in the interest of the Mission at San Jose, California. The facts are given in detail in the report of the Board, and also in the letter of Rev. M. M. Gibson, of San Francisco, submitted to us. It appears that the Assembly of 1876 appropriated $5,000, and that this sum has since been paid in currency to the San Jose Mission. In the necessary exchange, however, of the currency for gold in California, it is stated that a discount of about four and a half per cent. was suffered, and that the Mission has received in fact only about $4,775. The balance, about $225, Brother Gibson petitions that the Board make up to the Mission, and the Board asks the Assembly for instruction in the matter. The Mission of San Jose we admit to be one of great importance, and the money asked, if granted, would doubtless be devoted to a deserving object. But on the other hand, to grant the request would be, it seems to us, to make a new appropriation to a field to which the Assembly has been already liberal. Besides, it is the uniform usage of our Boards to pay the appropriations of the Assembly in currency, and to grant this claim would be a departure from established custom, for which we find no reason, which other mission fields in like circumstances might not equally claim.

We recommend the adoption of action as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the business of the Church, as conducted by this Board during the past year be cordially approved, and that the important work of which it has charge be commended anew to the enlarged liberality of all.

2. That we acknowledge our obligations, and tender sincere thanks for important services gratuitously rendered, to Messrs. Brown & Lambie, Solicitors, Pittsburgh, Pa., to Judge J. M. McCulloch, Pana, Ill., to T. S. McMurray, Esq., Omaha, Nebraska, and to Rev. D. C. Wilson, Clarinda, Iowa.

3. That the petition of Rev. M. M. Gibson, in the interest of the San Jose Mission, for the payment of $225 to indemnify for shrinkage in exchange of currency for gold, be not granted.

4. That the Board be authorized to publish and distribute throughout the Church 2,500 copies of its annual report, with such additional statements of its methods and usefulness, as it may deem advisable.

5. That Presbyteries be directed to guard carefully the rights and interests of our Church in all buildings and other property which may have been occupied or held by congregations now discontinued or withdrawn, and to dispose of all such property as soon as practicable, forwarding the proceeds to the Treasurer of the Board.

6. That an appropriation of $30,000 be made to this department of the Church's work for next year.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension presented the following report on the petition of Dr. A. Blaikie, pastor of the church in Boston, Mass., which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION ON THE PETITION OF REV. DR. BLAIKIE, OF BOSTON.

The paper submitted to us presents facts which we think call for the careful attention of the Assembly, and an appeal based on these:

1. The facts, as gathered from the document before us, and other sources considered reliable, are in substance these:

The United Presbyterian Church in Boston is situated in a very desirable part of the city; and the ground occupied could be sold for business purposes at high figures, whatever may be said of the adaptation of the building for congregational or mission purposes. The structure is unique in style, fitted to serve in its upper floor for a sanctuary and in its lower floor for two homes, one of which homes is used for a parsonage, and the other is rented for $30 per month. The building itself is perhaps inferior in its adaptation to a successful Mission, and also in its materials and durability; while Church and houses and lot, it is estimated by Dr. Blaikie as one property, are worth at least $30,000.

In various grants this Church has received from several Boards, donations aggregating $8,650, and from our people from time to time, in response to the urgent appeals of the venerable pastor, contributions amounting to many thousands more. Until 1869 the title to the property seems to have been vested in Dr. Blaikie himself. But at that time, moved by his great zeal to leave in the metropolis of heresy and skepticism an imposing memorial of sound theology and Scriptural principles, and in consideration of the liberal grants made by the Boards, and the large contributions made by the people, the worthy Doctor deeded the property to the Trustees of the General Assembly of our Church, subject to some incumbrance since removed. It appeared, however, subsequently that the Trustees of our General Assembly, although an incorporated body, could not at that time hold real estate in Massachusetts by the laws of the State, and accordingly the Trustees of our Assembly have succeeded this year in procuring the passage of a special act by the General Court of Massachusetts, empowering and authorizing them to hold real estate in that State to the amount of $300,000, and Dr. Blaikie proposes, as soon as possible, to have the property conveyed and made over, according to the terms of law now existing, to the present Trustees of the General Assembly, and their successors.

This valuable property, however, is encumbered heavily by bond and mortgage to the amount of $11,500, and there is a floating debt besides this, of about $500.

The congregation of course is small, and composed almost exclusively of people as straitened in their circumstances, as under the leadership of such a pastor they are devoted to the principles of their profession. Thus, few and straitened, struggling for a livelihood amid the adversities of the times, it is no wonder that they are not able, even with the aid of rent received for their houses, to pay their their pastor a moderate salary, and meet interest as it becomes due, much less to reduce the prinpal. The consequence is, Dr. Blaikie informs us, foreclosure is seriously threatened, and if the property be sold at this time of unexampled depreciation, and in process of foreclosure, both congregation and property will be lost to our Church; at least little, probably, will be saved.

2. In view of such facts, Dr. Blaikie implores the General Assembly to grant about $500, to enable him to prevent the threatend foreclosure of the mortgage, and also to grant about $7,000 more to be applied in reduction of the principal of the loan. He claims that if the Assembly will do this, the people will be able to carry the remainder of the debt, and support the ordinances of true religion in "the second commercial city of the continent."

The paper of Dr. Blaikie does not come before us indorsed by his Presbytery. It has the weight only of his personal application, but it is evident that whatever may be the condition or prospects of the congregation in Boston, this is a very valuable property to which the Church should have a valid title, and which probably it may easily hold or lose.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Church Extension be appointed to proceed to Boston, at his earliest convenience, for a careful and thorough examination, with the aid of competent local counsel, of the property, its condition, its title, its value, &c.; and for inquiry, also, as to the condition and prospects of the congregation; and that he be instructed to report the facts as to property to the Trustees of the Assembly, and all the facts as to the condition of the property and prospects of the congregation to the Board of Church Extension.

2. That the Trustees of the Assembly be directed, after receiving the above report of the Corresponding Secretary as to the condition of the property, to use all diligence to secure a perfect and unquestionable title to the same.

3. That no further aid be given to the U. P. Church, Boston, until a perfect title to the whole property will have been vested in the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly.

4. That if, after such full investigation, the Board of Church Extension find the danger of foreclosure to be real, and the loss threatened to be serious, it be authorized to draw upon the Treasurer of the General Assembly for a sum, not exceeding $500, to be used by it in protecting our interests against such loss.

5. That all questions of further aid to the Church in Boston be left, until the next meeting of the General Assembly, to the Board of Church Extension in its wise discretion, provided that if further aid should be granted by said Board, it be paid from its treasury.

6. That the expenses of Dr. Wallace's appointment to Boston be paid from the General Assembly's Fund.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Missions to the Freedmen, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF MISSIONS TO THE FREEDMEN.

The Committee has had before it the report of the Board, together with several communications from teachers in the field. The information obtained from these sources is of the most encouraging character. It assures us that the Board and teachers are faithfully performing their duty, and that such results are reached through their efforts as to awaken our gratitude and stimulate us to more increased effort.

A total enrollment in the College and branch schools at Knoxville of 287 scholars, many of whom are studying the classics, and others of the higher branches, gives evidence of earnest labor and a fullness of blessing. A further and better evidence is afforded by the fact that the religious work has been conducted with the most encouraging results. The recommendation of the last Assembly to provide dormitories for the students has been acted upon, and the wisdom of it has been already proven by the advantages they afford both teachers and students. The Industrial Department, which has been under the control of Mrs. M. J. Reed, has rendered important service in giving employment and material help, as well as religious instruction, to those who have been brought under its influence.

The success of the work in Chase City has been no less marked than in Knoxville. Specimens of progress from pupils in the schools are highly creditable, and emphatic testimony is given to the fact that the cause is steadily gaining ground in the community. In both Vicksburg and Nashville, there are members and property interests which ought to receive fostering care. The fidelity of those who live in these cities as United Presbyterians, in the face of many difficulties and under many discouragements, amounts to an example to such as live in more favorable situations.

While testifying to the fidelity of the Board, and those in its employ, and while expressing great pleasure in recording the above evidences of good results and encouragement, your Committee regrets that a deeper interest is not taken in the work by the Church at large. Committed as it is, by its traditions and present obligations to an efficient nurture of this cause, it is not giving it the support its relative importance demands. Our duties of philanthropy, patriotism and religion require that we shall give to the work of saving and educating the Freedmen no second place in our thoughts and efforts.

Your Committee would therefore offer the following resolutions:

1. That the work of the Board of Missions to the Freedmen be commended to the Church as one demanding its greatly increased devotion.

2. That $9,000 be granted the Board for the prosecution of its work during the year.

3. That an additional appropriation of $500 be made to the Mission in Vicksburg, and that the work in Nashville be committed to the discretion of the Board.

4. That Mrs. M. J. Reed, for efficient management of industrial interests, and Miss Ida McCulloch, for acceptable help in primary teaching, are entitled to our hearty acknowledgements, and that they be recommended to the Board for appropriate compensation for whatever of similar service they may render in the future.

5. That we gratefully recognize the good work performed by the Advisory Committee, consisting of Wm. Rule, Esq., the Rev. Isaac Emory, and the Rev. James McNeal, which, appointed last year, visited, inspected and reported upon the school at Knoxville.

6. That we specially acknowledge the continued kindness of Judge M. L. Hall, of Knoxville, who has so generously given the Board the benefit of his professional help and counsel.

The report of Rev. E. T. Jeffers, D. D., delegate to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, was presented and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

After prayer by Rev. E. T. Jeffers, D. D., the Assembly adjourned.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Elder Henry Harrison.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Special Committee on Temperance was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The Committee to whom was referred the paper and resolutions on Temperance, recommend the adoption of these resolutions, modified as follows:

Resolved, 1. Drunkenness is an evil of giant proportions, having inherent and appalling malignity. It is strongly intrenched by custom, cupidity and appetite. It works wide-spread ruin in society, and destroys men's souls and bodies.

2. The use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and the manufacture and sale of them for this purpose are evils—dishonoring to God and destructive to men.

3. To give aid, or countenance to those engaged in this nefarious business, by furnishing them with the necessary materials, leasing to them property to be used in their business, signing their petitions for license, or in any other way, is to make ourselves "partakers of other men's sins."

4. While, in instances in which it results—in some measure—from inherited infirmity, drunkenness may be regarded—to some extent—as a misfortune, it is at the same time a sin—a heinous sin—against God, and a crime against society.

5. Mere human devices, whether pledge, or organization, or profession—while they may be in some degree helpful—are entirely inadequate to the complete and permanent reformation of the drunkard. The Gospel of Christ alone, introduced into the soul by the illuminating power of the Holy Spirit, can bring effectual deliverance from this and every other form of moral evil.

6. It is the duty of the Christian Church to sympathize with, and earnestly promote all proper efforts for the reformation of the inebriate and the suppression of intemperance.

7. Individual Christians should use all proper means for the suppression of the liquor traffic. Legal prohibition, moral suasion, and the practice of total abstinence are demanded.

8. The Church of Jesus Christ is the Divinely appointed agency, and, through his strength, an adequate agency for the establishment of godliness and righteousness and temperance in the earth.

9. That Revs. J. G. Carson, D. D., William Bruce, D. D., W. G. Moorehead, D. D., T. H. Hanna, W. H. French, D. D., W. P. McNary, R. B. Ewing, D. D., J. H. Gibson and J. Williamson, and Messrs. R. B. Maxwell, Prof. E. F. Reid, Wm. Frew, T. H. Rabe, Hon. James Bain and J. M. Wallace be appointed a Permanent Committee to confer with similar Committees appointed by other Evangelical Churches with regard to the best means of securing united effort in the cause of Temperance; such Committee to meet at such time and place as may be agreed upon, on consultation with the Committees of other Churches; and report their proceedings to the next General Assembly.

After spending some time in devotional exercises, the Assembly adjourned with prayer by Rev. M. S. Telford.

WEDNESDAY.

9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. N. E. Wade.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A Committee, consisting of Revs. James Harper, D. D., William Wishart, D. D., and W. G. Moorehead, D. D., was appointed to prepare an address concerning the violation of the Sabbath by Railroad Companies in the running of trains, and to forward a copy of their address to the officers of the Railroad Companies.

The Committee on Statistics presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATISTICS.

Your Committee have examined the statistical tables referred to them, and, with similar Committees of former years, have been impressed with the amount of labor and care with which these have been prepared. In these statistics is found cause for humility, in that so many congregations fail in contributing to all, and 56 of them to any, of the funds of the Church; yet inasmuch as there is an improvement in this respect, there is also cause therein for encouragement.

Notwithstanding the instructions of last year to have reports from the Presbyteries in the hands of the Second Clerk not later than the 25th of April, several Presbyteries failed to report until the month of May; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That Presbyteries be urged to promptness in forwarding their reports.

2d. That the table showing the number of congregations in each Presbytery contributing to the various funds of the Church be published both in the Minutes of the Assembly and in the papers of the Church, from year to year.

As the Second Clerk asks instruction from the Assembly as to whether he shall every year publish the record of ordination of ministers in the alphabetical list, and, inasmuch as there is danger of errors in printing,

Resolved, That the Second Clerk be instructed to publish the record of ordination once in each volume of the Minutes.

The Standing Committee on Narrative and State of Religion presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The Committee have had before them the report of the Permanent Committee and reports of three Presbyteries.

The first of these papers not only contains the narrative of the past year, and presents the state of religion in general; but also suggestions and instruction in regard to the Church's work and the Church's need in order to a more faithful prosecution of her work. Believing that this report should be pressed upon the attention of the Church, we recommend:

1st. That the report of the Permanent Committee be adopted, and that it be commended to the earnest study and prayerful consideration of the entire ministry and membership of the Church.

2d. That the record of ministers deceased be published in the Minutes from year to year.

3d. That as the present blanks for Presbyterial reports secure the desired information, no change be ordered at present.

4th. That the Presbyteries, sending their reports to the Assembly this year, be reminded of the rules governing this matter, and be directed to act accordingly in the future.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

It is gratifying to be able to report that the financial condition of this Board is much better than it was a year ago. The indebtedness has been reduced from $2,392.05 to $1,032.14. So that instead of reserving one-half of the money contributed by the Church to pay off the indebtedness, the Board propose during the coming year, to pay into the hands of the beneficiaries the whole amount contributed by the Church, and seek from other sources the amount necessary to meet the remaining liabilities.

On the other hand it is painful to learn that the liberality of the Church to this Board during the past year has not been so great as it was the previous year—the amount contributed by the Presbyteries being $434.00 less.

Certainly the importance of the work in the hands of this Board is not properly appreciated by the Church.

Seventeen young men, whose names are reported to the Assembly, have received aid from the Board during the past year. Fifteen of these were Theological students, and two Literary. But the Board has been able to give to these beneficiaries only one-half of the amount for which they were recommended by their Presbyteries.

It is the opinion of your Committee, that to discriminate between Theological and College students as beneficiaries, and restrict the beneficence of the Board to the former class as a means of retrenchment, is neither just nor wise. If retrenchment be necessary, we believe it should be effected by limiting the amount given to each student during his whole course—not by limiting it to his Theological course.

We would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Assembly approve of the action of the Board in making a special appropriation to Mr. A. B. Caldwell—a native of India—who is preparing for the foreign mission work.

2. That an appropriation of $6,000 be granted to this Board for the coming year.

3. That the Board be directed to use all proper means to have the money, due from those brethren who have left the ministry of our Church, refunded as soon as possible.

The Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The receipts of the Board last year from Presbyteries, individuals and legacies were $1,854.29.

Their expenditures were $710, leaving a balance of $1,144.29.

This year their receipts of contributions from Presbyteries, the only contributions which they have had, have been $1,638.49, while their expenditures have been $1,421.72, leaving a balance of only $216.77.

Thus their receipts have been reduced and their expenditures have been more than doubled.

Such is the response of the Church to the action of the Assembly taken last year for the raising of an endowment of fifty thousand dollars for Ministerial Relief. A sad response indeed! How can it be accounted for?

The blame, if blame there be, must not be laid upon the people.

The sum received shows that many of our people do take an interest in this holy cause; but while many of our congregations have done nothing during the year for the Board, we cannot but believe that they would have done something if the subject had been presented to them.

The Nation provides for the relief of its crippled and disabled soldiers, even though they have fought but a single day; and it is impossible to believe that a single congregation in our Church would withhold aid from the disabled minister, who has given his whole life to the cause of Christ and His Church, if the ministers would ask them to contribute.

Brotherly love should prompt them all to do this; and furthermore, no minister, however comfortable his circumstances may be, can have the certain assurance that he or his family will never need help from such a Board.

We submit the following resolutions, viz:

Resolved, 1st. That the attention of Presbyteries is hereby directed to the mode of procedure in reference to making applications for aid from this Board, as indicated in their report to this Assembly.

2d. That the attention of Presbyteries be, and hereby is specially called to the rapid increase in the expenditures of the Board, and of the consequent necessity of securing contributions to its funds from every congregation under their care.

3d. That congregations and individuals, favored by God with worldly means, should not neglect the call of the Assembly for the endowment of fifty thousand dollars for the permanent use of this Board.

4th. That the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief be instructed to prepare and publish an address to the Church, setting forth the object and wants of this Board, and that all pastors be directed to present it to their congregations.

Spent some time in devotional exercises, during which a collection was taken up in behalf of the Board of Ministerial Relief.

The Committee on Finance presented their report, which was laid on the table.

The Special Committee on the salaries of the officers of the Assembly, Corresponding Secretaries of the Boards, &c., presented their report. Pending the discussion of this report, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. J. M. Fulton.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. N. Dick, D. D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following paper in relation to the influence of the secular press on morality, was adopted:

PAPER IN RELATION TO THE INFLUENCE OF THE SECULAR PRESS.

The attention of the Assembly having been directed to a resolution of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, adopted 27th inst., relating to the moral influence of the secular press, on motion,

Resolved, That this Assembly does hereby adopt, as the proper expression of its judgment, the resolution of the sister Assembly, viz:

"The General Assembly recognizes with great satisfaction the enterprise of the secular press in obtaining and publishing religious and ecclesiastical news; also th ability with which it discusses and advocates measures in promotion of education, sound morals, and good order. At the same time the Assembly begs leave to call the attention of those who control the secular press to the propriety and duty of giving less prominence to the details of crime, especially of all forms of licentiousness, as their publication tends to destroy delicacy of feeling, to corrupt the public mind, and to make that familiar and less repulsive which should always be viewed with abhorrence."

Resumed the consideration of unfinished business, viz: the report of the Committee on the Salaries of the Officers of the Assembly, Corresponding Secretaries, &c. This report was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON SALARIES.

We offer the following as a substitute for the report of the Committee of last year on certain salaries:

The Committee of last year was appointed to "readjust, upon an equitable basis," the salaries of officers of the Assembly, of the Secretaries of the Boards, and Treasurers of the same. The question meets us at once; what conditions are essential ot such equitable adjustment? We answer:

1. It is entirely equitable for the Church to allow her officers no pecuniary compensation for important and sometimes laborious services. Members and officers of congregations and sessions, Presbyteries and Synods, Colleges and Theological Seminaries, owe it, we believe, to the Church and to Christ to discharge duties that may involve more or less attention, time and effort, free of charge. And it is the fact that many in the United Presbyterian Church are gratuitously, and with apparently entire cordiality, performing services which, in secular relations, would be worth considerable compensation.

2. It may be equitable for the Church to pay some of her officers full and competent salaries. By full salaries we mean such large compensation as may be sufficient to enable them to support their families, and with economy in the course of years acquire a competence. This should be done, when such officers are required to devote all their time and energies to the work assigned them. This is done in larger denominations, in behalf, for example, of some Secretaries of Boards, and in our body, as well as in others, in behalf of Professors in Educational Institutions, financial agents, &c. It is not the fact that any of the officers, whose salaries are now in question, give all their time to their work, and accordingly it would not be equitable, we think, to pay any of them so much for their services.

3. It may be equitable for our Church to pay some of her officers, whose services are before us, nominal or partial salaries. This, we think, should be done when the services of their offices require a very considerable part of their time and attention; when they may be prevented entirely, or in part, by their official obligations from engaging in other and compensatory positions, or pursuits; and when especially it may be necessary, in the limited or straitened circumstances of their worldly condition, to use all their time for a temporal support.

4. It may be equitable, we think, to regulate the amounts of such salaries paid, according to the varying measures of responsibility, of time, and of work which the offices in question may require.

With these principles in view, as conditions essential to "an equitable basis of the readjustment" of the salaries before us, we recommend that officers be paid as follows:

Corresponding Secretaries:

Board of Home Missions	$800 00
" " Church Extension	600 00
" " Foreign Missions	500 00
" " Freedmen's Missions	200 00
" " Education	150 00
Treasurer of Board of Foreign Missions	300 00
" " " " " Church Extension	75 00

Officers of the Assembly:

Principal Clerk	.....	$ 75 00
Second "	.....	200 00
Assistant "	.....	25 00

Also, that all other officers, whose services are before us, be paid their expenses, in addition to our high appreciation and cordial thanks.

The report of the Committee on Finance was taken from the table, amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The following papers have been put into the hands of your Committee for examination, viz:

Reports of the Treasurers of the General Assembly, of the Boards of Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Freedmen's Missions, Church Extension, Education, Publication, Ministerial Relief, and part of the reports of delegates to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and to the Canada Presbyterian Church, and the bill of J. M. Wallace, member of the Committee on the Board of Publication, and the action of the Presbytery of Tennessee in reference to the estate of Henry and Mary Hamil.

The reports of the Treasurers have been audited, as directed by the General Assembly, by their respective Boards, and the footings have been found by us correct.

The report of money received for Foreign Missions shows a falling off in the contributions to that fund of a year ago, while the report of the Home Missions shows a considerable gain.

All our Boards have been able to meet their liabilities better than they feared. And while many of our Boards have been crippled in their operations through lack of funds, we have reason to thank God that they are in as healthy a condition as their reports indicate.

We recommend to the Assembly for adoption the following:

Resolved, 1. That the conduct of the different Treasurers and Boards of our Church in the management of the funds committed to their care, be approved.

2. That the Trustees of the General Assembly be directed to divide the one-half of the estate of Henry and Mary Hamil, left to them for distribution, among the different Boards of the Church, according to the rule of the General Assembly adopted last year (page 449), except the Board of Foreign Missions, which was so liberally provided for in the will; and that the Board of Home Missions be directed to invest ($1,500) fifteen hundred dollars of their share of said fund, and give the proceeds annually to the Big Spring congregation, Presbytery of Tennessee, so long as it shall be deemed necessary in the judgment of said Board.

3. That the Principal Clerk be directed to draw warrants on the Treasurer of the General Assembly as follows:

To Rev. D. Strang, delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South,	..	$ 58 70
To Rev. W. J. Gillespie, delegate to the Canada Presbyterian Church,	..	73 60
To J. M. Wallace, member of the Committee on the Board of Publication		27 50
To the Principal Clerk of the Assembly	.....	100 00
To the Second Clerk	.....	200 00
To the Assistant Clerk	.....	25 00
Incidental and traveling expenses of Clerks	.....	25 00
To the Sexton of the Church, Cambridge, O	.....	20 00

4. That the sum of three thousand dollars be appropriated to the General Assembly's Fund.

5. That our ministers be requested to urge upon our people, by example and precept, the important duty of giving of their worldly wealth as the Lord has prospered them, as an act of religious worship, which will secure God's rich blessing, both temporal and spiritual, if obeyed, and which will incur his righteous judgments if neglected.

It appears from information received directly from the Treasurer of the Ministerial Relief fund that some Presbyteries do not contribute at all to this fund, and that one Presbytery modestly asks for $200, and only contributes to this fund during the year $4.57. Another large and well to do Presbytery receives $200, and sends to the general fund but $27.

We recommend for adoption the following:

Resolved, That all Presbyteries be urged to contribute annually to the Ministerial Relief fund; and that those well to do Presbyteries asking aid from this fund show a liberality becoming their requests.

The following resolution, rescinding a certain action of the last Assembly was adopted:

RESOLUTION ON SALARIES.

Resolved, That the action of the General Assembly of last year, ordering that "the salaries of the officers of the Assembly, and Secretaries and Treasurers of the various Boards be paid out of the General Assembly Fund," be and hereby is rescinded.

The Committee on Revision presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REVISION.

The printed minutes of the Nineteenth General Assembly, and of the Synods of New York, Pittsburgh, First and Second Synods of the West, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa and Kansas, and the written records of the Synod of the Pacific, for 1877, have been before us for review. Those of the Synods of New York, First of the West, Ohio and Kansas, are not certified by their respective Clerks. Many of the Presbyterial reports are signed by the Clerk only. The minutes of a few of the Synods have an alphabetical index—which the Committee would commend—the others have not.

Some of the Synods print the statements of the Boards, and reports of Presbyteries, others print neither, contenting themselves with the publication of the reports of their Committees on the Boards of the Church, and on Narrative and State of Religion.

While your Committee are not prepared to recommend any definite action here, they feel that it would be desirable if greater uniformity in these respects, could be obtained.

The Synod of Kansas has appended to its printed minutes a half page of errata, which, under the circumstances, may be useful, but is not ornamental. The Clerk of that Synod indulges in comments upon sermons delivered before that body, which, the Committee think, does not fall in the line of his duty. Otherwise the printed minutes of this Synod are a model of neatness in style and execution. This last remark will apply almost equally well to the printed minutes of the other Synods.

The records of the Synod of the Pacific comprise their first and only meeting, thus far. They present a very good appearance, in the main, but there are indications of haste, on the part of the Clerk, particularly towards the close of the record, to which, perhaps, may be attributed a deterioration in the penmanship, an occasional error in orthography, abbreviations, and the omission of words, none of which should be found in permanent records.

The records overrun the marginal lines; the margin should always be used for brief references, and for these only.

On the fourth, fifth and sixth pages, the plural form, Presbyteries, is used, instead of the singular; thus, the Presbyteries of Oregon, the Presbyteries of San Francisco.

On the fourth page we find this entry: "The following Standing Committees were appointed." Then succeeds the list of names. But on the sixth page we read again: "The following Standing Committees were nominated and confirmed by the Synod." This announcement is followed by a blank, but evidently, here is the place where the list ought to have been inserted in the order of business.

In the closing paragraph it is twice declared that the Synod adjourned; once before the closing prayer, and then after it. The first session is said to have been closed with the benediction, but we are not told by whom; while at the final adjournment, from anything that appears in the record, the benediction was not pronounced at all.

The records of the General Assembly appear to be correct, and manifest great care and pains-taking in their preparation.

In so far as your Committee have been able to examine and determine, the business of the General Assembly, and of the subordinate Synods has been transacted faithfully and in conformity with our ecclesiastical rules. Therefore,

Resolved, That the minutes of the General Assembly, and of the several Synods, with the exceptions noted, be approved.

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented their report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

Your Committee has had before it several papers.

I. The annual report of the Board of Publication.—We notice with pleasure that the last mortgage of $5,000 on the building has been paid in full, together with the interest, the taxes for the last and current years, and the salaries of the employees.

The Revision of the Psalter.—The present book is inconvenient in presenting the music on one side, and the words on the other, very often. Your Committee is not in favor of much change in tunes, since those in use are familiar to our people, and not so old as to be worn out; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the Board take steps to so revise the Psalter as to obviate the above difficulty.

2. That a limited number of chants and anthems be inserted as an appendix, and that as regards the musical changes proposed, the Board be directed to consult the Committee on Selections.

3. That the present edition of the Psalm-Book be so changed as to present to the eye at the top of each page the number of the Psalm in figures, and also the measure of each Psalm.

II. The report of your Special Committee appointed last year.—Resolved, 1. That the blank forms prepared by this Committee, for annual exhibits, be recommended for use.

2. That the Board have authority to provide a Business Manager, who shall be directly responsible to the Board.

3. That the rules and by-laws proposed by your Special Committee be adopted for the use of the Board, with liberty to make any additions which may be necessary to carry out the intentions of the Assembly.

4. That the Board be authorized to make such provisions for aid to the Manager as will enable him to prosecute, systematically and efficiently, all the work connected with the publishing house; and that they take note of all matters to which attention is called by your Special Committee.

5. That the recommendations of the Special Committee in regard to the rule for estimating the value of the real estate, and the merchandise, and in regard to the book accounts and bills receivable to be included among the assets, and in regard to the donations, be adopted.

III. The request of R. S. Wallace.—Believing that the Psalms of the Bible may be sung into favor in the new and sprightly music of the Quarterly; and knowing that already more than 3,000 copies of the Quarterly, containing selections from the Psalms, are in use in congregations and Mission stations outside of our own denomination; therefore,

Resolved, That the privilege of using the revised edition of the Book of Psalms in making selections for the Quarterly be granted, provided that the publishers of the Sabbath School Quarterly of Chicago grant to our Committee, appointed to prepare and publish a book of selections of Psalms set to music, the privilege of incorporating in the same the Sabbath School music, which is, or may be, copyrighted in their name.

IV. The resignation of Rev. J. C. Boyd, the Corresponding Secretary.—Resolved, That his resignation be not accepted.

V. Miscellaneous Resolutions.—Resolved, 1. That the Board be authorized to publish 4,000 copies of the Minutes of this Assembly, and that pastors and sessions make effort to secure their circulation.

2. That the Church be requested to remember this Board in her prayers, and with liberal contributions.

3. That the Board be authorized to donate to Missions, Sabbath Schools, Theological students and missionaries, in suitable books, an amount equal to the contributions made during the year.

4. That only so much of the Special Committee's report be published as includes the by-laws referred to above.

The credentials of Rev. James Lovejoy Robertson, delegate from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, were presented, and the hearing of the delegate was made the order of the day for 8 o'clock this evening.

After prayer by Rev. C. H. Mitchell, the Assembly adjourned.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. A. Nelson.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Judicial Committee presented the following report on the impropriety of unlicensed students preaching, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE ON THE IMPROPRIETY OF UNLICENSED STUDENTS PREACHING.

There has been a paper referred to the Judicial Committee, instructing said Committee to make a report to the Assembly on the impropriety and unlawfulness of the conduct of students of theology who, though unlicensed, preach in vacancies and supply pulpits in the absence of pastors.

In pursuance of instructions, the Committee reports as follows:

There are certain ways in which it is the right and duty of all who know the gospel to publish and diffuse it. There are conceivable certain circumstances in which it might become the duty of any one possessing adequate knowledge, and fired with zeal for the salvation of souls, to conduct the exercises of public worship, even though destitute of any license by a church court. But the circumstances which would justify this course must be very extraordinary.

There can be little doubt that the common law, the use and wont, of our church is, that no student of theology, without license, has a right to lead the public worship of a congregation unless in the attitude of one who is undergoing trials before a Presbytery with a view to licensure sooner or later.

The statute law of the church points clearly in the same direction, for, in the Book of Government and Discipline, various regulations are prescribed for the guidance of Presbyteries in the matter of licensing men to preach the gospel. It is manifestly implied in the whole texture of those regulations that in order to preach the gospel, men must have license granted them, and that by a Presbytery. But, if so, the notion is precluded that a student can license himself, or that it pertains to individual ministers to license him. According to our polity, licensure must precede preaching, except in the sense already indicated, and to license is the prerogative of a Presbytery, not of ministers in their individual capacity. It seems rather preposterous for a student of theology to present himself to Presbytery as a candidate for licensure after he has been going round on his own authority as a preacher of the gospel.

The fact that a man is a student of theology gives him no standing, assuredly, as an officer in the Church, and such a one has not nearly as plausible grounds for officiating in the character of a preacher as have ruling elders, many of whom are richly endowed with gifts and graces.

It may be said that students need to practice preaching in order that they may learn. This is admitted, but the inference often drawn from it is not admitted. Those who aspire to the ministry can have facilities for preaching in the Seminaries, much more numerous than any of them known to us are disposed to avail themselves of. They can also preach before Presbyteries and, in the judgment of many, they should be required to do so much more frequently than is common. In ordinary prayer meetings, moreover, and in Sabbath Schools they can find wide scope for the exercise of their gifts within the limits of law.

In considering this matter, it is not to be overlooked that there is a comparatively large number of licentiates and ministers in our Church, many of them not only earnest men, but acceptable preachers also, who are unemployed. The practice of engaging or allowing unlicensed men to occupy pulpits does an injustice to those who have been formally authorized to preach.

It is of great importance, besides, in this age of lawlessness, when the elements of anarchy are to a large extent openly or secretly at work in society, that those who aspire to the ministry, and therefore to be guides of others, should be trained themselves to respect law and order. He has but scanty preparation for a post of command, who has not learned to obey. A conscientious regard for law is one of the most valuable lessons which aspirants to the office of the ministry can learn. To encourage them to do what is clearly irregular, or even what is of questionable propriety is to do them an injury, and in greater or less measure disqualify them for the work to which they look forward; and it behooves all ministers and ruling elders especially, to beware of inflicting on them such a wrong and putting a stumbling block in their way.

In view of these considerations, and of others which our limited time forbids us to specify, the Committee submits respectfully for adoption, these resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly regards with disapprobation, as irregular and of injurious tendency, the condition of matters alleged to exist in certain quarters, according to which unlicensed students of theology undertake to officiate as preachers in the ordinary services of public worship.

2. That Presbyteries be, and they hereby are, charged to adopt prompt measures for the suppression of the disorderly state of matters indicated, resorting, if need be, to the exercise of judicial discipline on the actual offenders, and on those who make themselves accessory to their offense by appointing or inviting them to preach.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented the following report with respect to the training of young men for the ministry, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF EDUCATION WITH RESPECT TO THE TRAINING OF YOUNG MEN FOR THE MINISTRY.

Only twenty-three Presbyteries have reported to the General Assembly on this subject.

From these reports it appears that sixteen young men have been licensed during the past year by the Presbyteries in America.

Of the sixteen young men who belong to Presbyteries in our own country, five have spent three sessions at the Seminary with the usual amount of training by Presbytery. Ten have spent two sessions, and one is reported as having spent but one. Three of those who have spent two sessions in the Seminary have studied one year in private under the care of Presbytery.

It is the opinion of your Committee that in these times there is a tendency to undue haste in putting men into the ministry. We would therefore recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That as an able, as well as a godly ministry is of the utmost importance to our success as a Church, this General Assembly earnestly exhort all our Presbyteries to exercise the greatest care in training men for the office of the ministry.

Rev. James Lovejoy Robertson, delegate from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, presented the Christian greetings of the body he represented, and the Moderator responded in the name of the Assembly. At the close of the addresses a few minutes were spent in devotional exercises.

The Committee on Nominations presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS.

The Committee on Nominations recommend the election of the following persons to fill the vacancies for which they are named, viz:

The following paper relating to the organization of Women's Missionary Societies, was adopted:

ACTION RELATING TO THE ORGANIZATION OF WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

The General Assembly has continued the Committee previously appointed to assist in the organization of Ladies' Missionary Societies in the congregations of the Church. This Committee is very cordially commended to the ladies throughout the Church, prepared, as it will be, to give all desired information in respect to the organization of Congregational Societies, and to assist them in beginning and carrying on their work. It is believed that the ladies, organized in this way, may achieve important results; first, in fostering and cultivating a spirit of devotion and consecration to God; and subsequently, and in consequence of their spiritual gains, in making contributions to the benevolent work of the Church. It is therefore Resolved, 1. That the establishment of Ladies' Missionary Societies in the congregations be encouraged.

2. That the ladies be solicited to devote whatever funds they raise in their Societies to the several departments of Missionary work, as nearly as possible, in proportion to the amount appropriated by the General Assembly.

3. That when a Presbyterial Society is formed it shall make an annual report to the Presbytery, and when such Presbyterial Society is not formed the report shall be made through the Session.

4. That each Presbytery shall report to the General Assembly the number of Missionary Societies under its care, together with such statistics respecting members, collections, etc., as may give an intelligent account of its proceedings and results.

5. That these statistics be incorporated in the annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

6. That in order to avoid confusion in the management of the finances, all money contributed by the Societies to the Boards, shall be transmitted through the Financial Agents appointed by the General Assembly.

The following paper on Ministerial Support was adopted:

PAPER ON MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

WHEREAS, Many organizations in different parts of our Church, which would be likely, if supplied regularly with preaching, to grow into self-sustaining congregations, are, for the want of it, languishing or declining; and,

WHEREAS, Many ministers in our Church, educated to preach the gospel, and fitted for usefulness, are not regularly employed in the supply of congregations, or mission stations, much of whose valuable time and service is accordingly lost to our missionary work; and,

WHEREAS, The funds of the Board of Ministerial Relief are utterly inadequate to meet the urgent necessities of our superannuated and disabled brethren, their widows and children, and,

WHEREAS, In the judgment of this Assembly these great hindrances to the success of the gospel and prosperity of the Church are largely due to a defective system of Ministerial Support; therefore,

Resolved, That a Committee, consisting of Revs. D. M. Ure, James Harper, D. D., Alex. Young, D. D.; J. B. Dales, D. D.; J. T. Cooper, D. D., and R. B. Ewing, D. D., be appointed to report to the next General Assembly, if in their judgment they can devise one, an improved system of Ministerial Support, to the end that such formidable hindrances to the gospel may be avoided, and the success of our Church and the salvation of souls greatly promoted.

The Special Committee on Old Records presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON OLD RECORDS.

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of this Assembly and the Church are due, and are hereby tendered the Second Clerk for the great labor and care bestowed on the work of preparing such a full and satisfactory record of the organizations of Presbyteries and Synods; also to Rev. J. C. Boyd, Clerk of the Committee on Old Records, for the diligence shown in this work.

2. That the record of organizations be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.*

3. That the records and histories of Presbyteries and congregations be left for the present with the respective Presbyteries.

*The publication of this record is deferred until the Minutes of next year, in order to secure greater completeness.

4. That the Committee on Old Records be directed to ascertain more definitely, and report to the next Assembly a plan and the cost of a suitable vault for preserving histories and records.

5. That this Assembly recommend the formation of a United Presbyterian Historical Society, and hereby authorize the Committee on Old Records to organize such a Society and report to the next Assembly.

The following paper in relation to the Church's work was adopted:

PAPER IN RELATION TO THE CHURCH'S WORK.

In order to aid in giving effect to the requirements of the Assembly in relation to the work of the Church, contemplated in the acts of this Assembly:

Resolved, That Presbyteries be, and hereby are, enjoined to make the contemplated work of the Church a matter of prayer and conference at their first regular meeting after the dissolving of this Assembly, urging upon pastors and missionaries the duty of presenting to the people the great work contemplated by this Assembly, and to devise some method for a more regular and systematic plan of contributions to meet the wants of the different Boards of the Church.

The following resolutions of thanks were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of the Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered to the enterprising editors of the Guernsey Times for the publication of the proceedings of this meeting, and to other secular papers that have published reports.

2. That our thanks are due, and are hereby tendered the pastor and people of the United Presbyterian congregation of Cambridge, as also to the citizens of Cambridge, who have so kindly entertained us; together with the congregations which have provided for us such bountiful dinners from day to day.

3. That we express our thanks to our Moderator for the kind and genial manner in which he has performed the duties of his office.

4. That we unitedly express our gratitude to the King and Head of the Church for the presence of the Holy Spirit, as evidenced in the harmony and good will that have prevailed in all our sessions.

5. That the thanks of the Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered to the railroad companies that have so kindly favored delegates to the Assembly by a reduction of railroad fare.

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

The Assembly was dissolved, when the Moderator said, "By virtue of authority to me delegated, I do hereby dissolve this General Assembly, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet at New Wilmington, Pa., on the fourth Wednesday of May, 1879, at 2:30 o'clock, P. M."

Prayer was offered by Rev. A. Blaikie, D. D., Psalm 133, C. M., was sung, and the Apostolic benediction was pronounced by the Moderator.

S. G. IRVINE, Moderator.

WILLIAM J. REID, Principal Clerk.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Your Trustees would respectfully report: That since your last meeting they have endeavored to attend to such temporal affairs pertaining to the Assembly as have come before them.

An Act has been passed by the Legislature of Massachusetts authorizing the General Assembly to hold real estate in that Commonwealth to the amount of three hundred thousand dollars. This was procured to perfect the title to the church property in Boston and Fall River; and any other cases that might arise in that State.

We have given considerable attention to the collection of some legacies that have been left to the General Assembly for the use of Missions, but owing to the delays of the law, we have so far not been very successful.

The term for which James McCandless, R. E. Stewart and Graham Scott were elected Trustees, will expire July 1, 1878. You will please fill their places by a new election.

A Committee of our Trustees has audited the account of James McCandless, Treasurer of the General Assembly, and found the same correct.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of Board of Trustees,

GRAHAM SCOTT, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

In offering their Nineteenth Annual Report, the Board are able to say that no one of its members, or of the missionaries under its care, has been cut off by death during the year. Fifteen meetings of the Board have been held for the transaction of business, and word has been received that in every one of our missions, and in their principal stations, there have been conversions to Christ and additions to the native churches. While, however, this statement is gratefully made, the Board are pained to have to say that, with the fields whiter for the harvest than perhaps ever before, and the laborers in some portions of it fewer, yet not a single new missionary has been sent forth to the work, and in scarcely any month has the Treasurer been able to meet the demands upon him for indebtedness, or for current expenses.

For the details of its mingled joys and sorrows in these things, the Board most earnestly ask the attention of the Assembly.

FUNDS.

The total amount received during the year ending April 30, 1878, was $47,551.01, and was contributed as follows, viz.:

Presbyteries	$29,826 73
Sabbath Schools	1,370 95
Missionary Societies	4,290 20
Individuals	7,421 37
Legacies	4,154 37
Investments	487 39
Total	$47,551 01

Compared with the previous year, there was a decrease as follows:

Presbyteries	$10,827 75
Sabbath Schools	917 57
Missionary Societies	2,210 65
Individuals	5,204 20
Legacies	2,217 41
Investments	5,087 11
Making the large sum of	$26,464 69

The appropriations for the year, as made by the General Assembly, were $62,530. The amount received was $47,551, leaving a deficiency of $14,979.

Orders were granted in favor of the India Mission to the amount of	$21,600 00
To the Mission in Egypt	30,000 00
Making a total of	$51,600 00
The amount paid to India was	$15,628 00
The amount paid to Egypt was	25,436 00
	$41,064 00
Leaving an indebtedness of	$10,536 00

The sale of property in India not needed for mission purposes enabled that mission to meet a large portion of the expense provided for in the estimates. This was an unexpected source of income, and does not relieve the Church from the responsibility of providing the full amount of the appropriation made by the General Assembly.

The mission in Egypt was also favored by unexpected contributions, and at the first of January, 1878, reported having spent $2,518 less than the estimate. This is a gratifying statement, and, taken in connection with the favorable turn of events in India, should make the Church exceedingly thankful that the Lord has provided the means for carrying on His work, even while the Church at home was failing to raise the money appropriated by the General Assembly.

As the financial year of the missions in India and Egypt closes on the thirty-first of December, and that of the General Assembly on the thirtieth of April, four months later, it is not known definitely what our present indebtedness is to these two missions. The lowest amount would probably be about $5,000.

MISSIONARIES.

In their sense of the great need of the mission in Egypt, the Board last fall re-appointed Dr. D. R. Johnston to it; but we regret to say that he has not been able to resume the work. Very anxiously, also, have the Board desired that Rev. D. Strang should return; but various circumstances have constrained him to remain as yet in this country.

Dr. J. F. Patterson has been endeavoring during the year to recruit the shattered health, with which he returned to us a year since; but not succeeding as he desired, he has at length tendered his resignation, and the Board have been constrained to accept it. Rev. Samuel Martin and family have been materially benefitted by their rest, and after a season they expect to return to the Indian field, where it is felt he is very greatly needed. Miss Campbell has been sojourning among her friends, and it is hoped with benefit to her health and strength.

Last September Mrs. Watson, of the mission in Egypt, returned to this country with the children of the family, and has found a season of rest and change of great service. Rev. Dr. Watson has also just reached our shores, and, after a few months, will return with his family to his work in the fall. Miss Lockhart, it grieves us to say, has been so prostrated by long continued illness that she has at length been forced to leave the work, much as she loved it and was loved in it, and just reaching her friends here will anxiously wait the developments of Providence. Miss Johnston also, after an absence of about nine years, and much needing a change, has returned, and it is hoped will be able, after a short season, to resume her work with increased strength and usefulness.

It may seem that the number of persons absent from their fields of labor is large. But the Board wish to have it understood that it has never been our policy to encourage frequent returns of missionaries to this country, or favor long absences from the mission work. Rather it has ever been felt that nothing but necessity, under a deep conviction of duty, should have any one feel at liberty to withdraw from the work, and that then every effort should be made to return to it at the earliest day possible.

MISSION CHANGES.

Two eventful ones have been made during the year:

First.—In Syria. As directed by the last General Assembly, the Board took steps for the transfer of this mission to the care of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, and as the result, report: (1.) That all the joint property of the mission—the property that was built by funds in common from both the Irish Presbyterian Church and ours—is to remain in the occupancy of the Irish brethren, with a right for us to return and resume labors with them in it, if at any time hereafter it shall be deemed best. This arrangement was made according to stipulations that were formally agreed upon by the joint mission, and ratified by the respective Assemblies in 1860. (2.) The buildings in Bludan, being the exclusive property of our United Presbyterian Church, were purchased by the Board of the Irish Church from us for the sum of £675, and the proper conveyance of all our right and title to them was made and forwarded to them. (3.) In regard to the missionaries, the Rev. John Crawford, having spent his entire missionary life of twenty years in that field, and seen no reason to doubt the continued interest and usefulness of his labors in this mission, preferred, after much anxious thought, to remain in it. He was accordingly transferred from the charge of our Board to that of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, with earnest expressions of our affection and confidence as a man of tried and devoted worth. Miss Mary Frazier, who had entered there upon the work of preparing for labor in the field that had been consecrated with the toils and the dust of her lamented father, yielded to the recommendation of the Board and of friends, and deciding to continue in our service, was thence removed to the mission in Egypt, where she is engaged with every promise of success in the great work.

The Board cannot dismiss this subject of the Syrian mission without expressing the deep interest which our whole Church should ever feel in it as the oldest and longest continued thus far of all our foreign missions. Most gratefully also, would the Board record its sense of the distinguished Christian courtesy and the honorable bearing that have marked the course of the Committee or Board of Missions of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland in all their proceedings with us in the transfer of this mission and property.

Second.—In regard to the mission in China, the Board have to report that, as the last Assembly also directed, the mission which had been carried on for more than seventeen years in Canton has been transferred to the Pacific Coast. With marked care and fidelity, the Rev. J. C. Nevin disposed of the mission property to a German Missionary Society, and without any loss on the amount of money expended in it. Removing, then, with his family to our own shores, he, with a view of commencing operations among the Chinese in California, was directed to explore the field, and on consultation with the Presbytery of San Francisco, fix upon a proper location. With entire unanimity Los Angeles was selected—a place containing a population of about 20,000 inhabitants, and a large number of the Chinese people. With great courtesy and kindness, the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church proposed to relinquish that point to us, if we would occupy it. Accordingly, purchasing the mission premises at what was considered a reasonable rate, viz.: $1,390, Mr. Nevin took up his residence there with his family, and is now entering upon the work—a work which ought to be regarded with very great interest. It is on our own shores. It is for a people, many of whom may return to China, and who can be the means of untold good if they are only made to find Jesus Christ, and then go back with their hearts all aglow with His love, and their tongues ready to tell of Him and the riches of His grace to their benighted countrymen in the great Empire of China.

The Board cannot close this statement without most earnestly commending this mission to the Chinese to the sympathy, the prayers and the increased liberality of our people for its support. One of the ablest of missionaries has left the field which had become, as he believed, so inviting in Canton, to take charge of this in California, and he ought to be thoroughly sustained. The mission is more expensive in California than in China, and should be promptly and fully provided for.

OUR HELPERS.

The past year has witnessed many signal interpositions of God, and of the friends that He raised up to aid this great cause.

Abroad.—His Highness the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh made his usual, most generous and timely contribution of one thousand pounds for the fourteenth time annually to the mission in Egypt. This munificent gift brought gladness to the heart of every member of the mission, and very materially helped carry on the good work of the Lord in that land.

With a truly noble Christian spirit, and in the exercise of a very wise and able statesmanship, the Hon. C. L. Vivian, Her Brittanic Majesty's Agent and Consul General at Cairo, interposed his offices with the Government of Egypt, and was largely instrumental with others in obtaining from the Khedive a right for the members of our native churches, specially at Moteah and Koos, to own sites, build themselves church edifices, and carry on the worship of God in their own way. The greatest good has resulted in various ways from the official acts of this eminent and worthy man.

During the past year, also, the students of the Divinity Hall of the United Presbyterian Church of Scotland have raised, by their special solicitations, the generous sum of £1,374 14*s.* 1*d.*, about $6,872, and transmitted it to the Rev. Dr. Hogg of the mission in Egypt, to aid in the erection of suitable buildings for the Training School and College at Osiout. This was a most munificent contribution, and calls for devout thanksgiving to God and to the young men who so nobly raised it.

The British and Foreign Bible Societies and the Turkish Mission Aid Society have shown their usual liberality.

At Home, also, much has been done. In numerous instances, generous men and women of God have come forward, and in times of pressing need have given aid that was so much desired. Some of these have given the contribution that, at the moment, well-nigh or entirely bridged over what had seemed an impassable gulf. Would that there were many such friends each year. What a debt of gratitude the Church would owe them!

The following, with others, may be specially mentioned:

Daniel Wilson	$ 100
Mrs. Maria Rich	100
A friend, for support of two female missionaries in India	2,128 gold.
A. M. Stewart, Esq., for support of missionary in Egypt	600
Adam Turner	100
Hugh Elliott	500
Mrs. I. W. Grier	100
Mrs. J. A. Sawyer	200
Rev. R. W. and Mrs. French	100
A friend in Philadelphia	1,050
A friend in Monmouth	100
Col. John McFarland, interest on $4,000	240

The Board cannot refrain from making special mention of William Gibson, M D., of Jamestown, Pa. With an enlarged Christian spirit, and an anxious concern for the enlightening of the blinded millions of the Arabic-speaking populations of the East through the simple word of God, he has set apart a valuable property in the city of Erie, Pa., and with the requisite written instruments, proposes to make over its avails to be perpetually used under the direction and oversight of the Board in scattering abroad the Scriptures in the Arabic tongue in the East. The Board have accepted the trust as it is to be executed, and ere long the work will be in active operation. Such large-hearted and munificent liberality cannot be too highly commended. All praise to the rich grace of God that has brought it about, and never should our United Presbyterian Church cease to regard with affection and honor the man who has thus proved himself, in one of the best of senses, a benefactor of his race and a helper of the cause of Christ.

With a far-reaching regard to the best interests of the mission cause in India in having a native ministry trained for the service of the gospel in that dark land, William Reed, Esq., of Sewickley, Pa., also has made very generous proffers of aid in founding and properly sustaining a Theological School in the mission for this purpose. Already the work is thoroughly begun, and the happiest results are being already realized.

In several instances individuals and associations or societies have undertaken the support of a missionary or native teacher, and thus have rendered important service by relieving the Board of that amount of expense, and, at the same time, have been happily brought into immediate and interesting contact with the persons for whom the contributions were made. For all this the Board is grateful, and would always commend work like this, rather than that of taking up, as is so often asked, a native scholar to be supported—an act that cannot but be objectionable, because: It causes separate accounts to be kept; it tends to have an injurious effect upon the person receiving aid by exciting in him a spirit of vanity or self-importance and superiority over the other scholars; it is often also impossible to foresee how a native child may turn out, and if it should be unfortunate, as is always so fearfully possible, the effect is discouraging—perhaps the missionaries are blamed, and the donors feel that they have given and labored in vain.

SABBATH SCHOOLS.

It is specially gratifying that a considerable number of the Sabbath Schools of our Church are engaged in this work, and it is confidently believed that if an effort for it was carefully and perseveringly made on the part of parents and teachers, all the children of our Church might be actively at work in helping have the gospel preached in all the world. Very easily, and with the happiest effect, a school might take up a native teacher, or a boys' school or girls' school, and undertake to raise the money required from the Board to sustain them.

SOCIETIES.

In various ways the principle of combining effort on behalf of this cause is being happily brought into exercise. In some instances the children of a family or neighborhood have formed themselves into societies, where they seek information at each meeting on the subject of missions, and raise what they can for this cause. Of most special interest is it also that there is a steady increasing interest among the women of our Church in realizing more and more the privilege and the duty of putting forth efforts to evangelize and elevate their many sisters who are wretched and miserable in all the darkness and degradation of their heathenism. In many churches, women feeling this, have organized themselves into societies, which hold regular meetings, have correspondence with foreign missionaries, appoint committees to prepare for each meeting matter that will tend to inform and interest the members on the subject of missions, and to excite prayer and offerings on its behalf. Great good is being thus done to the individuals themselves and to the cause they seek to promote. In some instances the ladies of the different congregations in a Presbytery hold a meeting of delegates for conference from their different societies about the time the Presbytery convenes in a particular place, and have done much to awaken interest and draw forth prayer and liberality on behalf of this great work.

Very efficiently also has the Women's Missionary Society, which owes so much for its origin and efficiency to the President, Mrs. S. R. F. Hanna, been engaged in this service. From the Assembly it has the privilege of dividing its funds between the different Boards of the Church. We gratefully mention that a good proportion of its contributions has come into our treasury, and most heartily should the Board and the Assembly bid it and all the missionary organizations of our Church God-speed in all proper efforts to raise funds and awaken interest in the mission cause.

Proposing, as these societies do, to interest the women of our Church in missions, and recognizing the fact, as it is hoped they all ever will, that there must be entire unity in our foreign, as well as our home work, and that that unity can really exist only by there being only one supreme Board, the women of our Church can attain great efficiency and usefulness in this work. The Board of Foreign Missions, as chartered by the Church and State, is entrusted with all the responsibilities of this work in the intervals of the meetings of the Assembly, and is, and of necessity must be, the only power that can originate new missions, send out new missionaries, and authorize the erection of new buildings and the incurring of new expenses; but with this power in its hands, and always acting only as it is authorized by the Assembly, and always sustained by the active co-operation and help of all the churches and all the missionary societies, this Board will ever be able in the future, as it has been in the past, to go forward and undertake and accomplish much to the glory of God. Any other course will have a sad liability to divide the counsels of the friends of missions, to produce alienations, and more or less to divert to new or unauthorized objects the funds which the Church has solemnly pledged herself to give for the support of her missionaries and their work. With one Board for missionary work, with one object in view, and with one general course to pursue in accomplishing it, there can be no doubt of its being seen in the years to come, as in the years gone by, that God, even our own God, will bless us, that His way may be made known on earth, and His saving health among all nations.

In connection with this, the Board respectfully ask that the Assembly will re-issue its instructions that nothing inviting expense, or that will call for the contributions of the churches, shall be undertaken in the foreign field, or have appeals made to individuals or the churches for funds on its behalf, without its having been carefully considered and agreed upon in the particular mission that has or will have the charge of it, and that it shall be included in the estimates which are always submitted to the Board for approval, and are authorized by the Assembly.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

From various causes each of our missions is in a condition at this time which painfully calls for reinforcement. The field is becoming really larger and more urgent every year, though technically in the same bounds. New demands for earnest and able labors are constantly arising. The devoted and useful men in the field are threatened with breaking down. Several are already here on furlough, and others will ere long have to be. What can be more natural or necessary than that there should be new persons on the field studying the language and learning how to do the work when they shall formally undertake it? Most fortunately and significantly there are now men of a promising character that are willing to respond to any cry of the Church, "Whom shall we send?" with the word, "Here are we—send us." Will the Assembly appoint them, or authorize the Board to do so—with the assurance that the means for sending them out and sustaining them when they reach the fields shall be regularly furnished?

In connection with this, also, the Board are impressed with the idea from intimations from various parts of the Church, and from many important interests involved, that the Assembly might give, with very happy effects, some general deliverance upon the subject of missionaries returning to this country, the frequency of it, and the length of time to be spent in their absence from the work for which, by their training, they have become fitted, and where they are so much needed. On an average, for all the fields we occupy, no missionary can visit this country and return to his post without an expense to the Board of from $300 to $800, and this, besides paying each married missionary a salary of $1,000 a year, and each single female missionary $300 a year. The Board deeply feel the importance and the delicacy of this subject, and commend it to the earnest attention of the Assembly.

BEQUESTS.

In His good Providence God has signally shown His kindness to us in moving increasing numbers of His people to remember this cause in their wills. Funds of very great moment have thus come in most opportunely from time to time, and we heartily commend to every one who has been made to rejoice in the Christian hope, and to whom God has given the means, the question, Ought I not remember in my Will, and act liberally for Him who did such great things for me, and by whose grace I am what I am?

As, however, there may be contingencies in the carrying out of wills—either through their not being signed a sufficient length of time before the death of the testator, or through some defect in the will itself, or in the protracted and expensive litigations which interested parties may make, the question may well be asked: Would it not be well for every one to make his offering to this cause while living, either by direct donations, or in making over his property to the Board, or to some one in trust for it—the interest or income of it to return, in whole or in part, to him during his life time if it is desired, and then at his death, the principal to be wholly the Board's for its great and sacred uses?

THE MISSIONS.

As already stated, and according to the action of the last Assemby, the missions in Syria and China have been transferred. Our present missions in the order of their formation are:

1. Egypt.—This mission was begun on the first of January, 1855, and has five stations at which missionaries are located, and thirty-eight places where religious services are held on the Sabbath, five of which were opened during the past year. It has five regularly organized churches. The whole number of Missionaries on the field are eight male and fourteen female, total, twenty-two. Native ordained, 4; pastors, 3; school teachers, 56; licentiates, 7; students of theology, 11. The total number of agents, foreign and native, 113. Average attendance on the Sabbath, 1,646. The whole number of Sabbath Schools, 32; teachers, 92; Sabbath School scholars, 1,162. The whole number of converts is 856. Increase during the year—by profession, 125; certificate, 9; total, 134. Decrease by death, 10; removal, 30; suspension, 22; total, 62—making the actual increase, 72. Infants baptized, 110; adults (Moslems), 3. In day schools—boys, 993; girls, 568; total, 1,561. In boarding schools—girls, 51; training school—boys, 75. The contributions of the native congregations amounted to $5,058, or nearly six dollars per member.

2. India.—This mission was founded, also, in 1855, and has, so far as we are able to state without formal statistics yet for the past year, four leading stations, viz.: Sealkote, Gujranwalla, Gurdaspur and Jhelum—with smaller ones, viz.: Passoor, Zafferwal, Remugger, Kolanoor, Denanugger and Keilu. Besides these, there are large numbers of villages, where religious instruction is more or less regularly given.

In this mission the preaching of the word has been faithfully carried on, the sacraments dispensed, schools, both for boys and girls, kept open, with most satisfactory evidences of progress on the part of the pupils. Itinerant and bazar preaching have been maintained, and a very gratifying work has been well begun in the opening and carrying on, with the most encouraging success, a school of theology for the training of young men for the ministry.

The only statistics we have received for this mission are as follows: Whole number of communicants, 213: increase by profession, 40; by certificate, 15; decrease, 54; infant baptisms, 24; adult, 40; scholars in Sabbath schools, 247; teachers, 15.

RECAPITULATION.

Missions, India and Egypt; stations, 44; foreign missionaries, 13; unmarried female missionaries, 11; native ordained ministers, 6; licentiates, 8; native laborers, 154; total laborers, 174; communicants—Egypt, 856; India, 213; total, 1,069; increase—Egypt, 126; India, 40; total, 166; scholars in Sabbath Schools—Egypt, 1,162; India, 247; total, 1,409; teachers and officers—India, 15; Egypt, 92; total, 107; scholars in Egypt—in day schools, 1,404; in boarding schools, 51; in training school, 75; in Theological Seminary, 11; females taught at home, 476; total, 2,017; contributions of native members in Egypt, $5,058.

THE BOARD.

The terms of John Alexander, Joseph D. McKee and Rev. S. G. Fitzgerald expire at this meeting.

J. B. DALES, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD AND OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

As required by the General Assembly, the Board and the General Committee of Home Missions would respectfully present the following report:

I.—REPORT OF THE BOARD.

The following extracts from the report of the Board to the General Committee will convey some idea of the progress of the work committed to this important agency of the Church during the year now drawing to a close.

Aid was granted by the last General Assembly to 194 stations under the care of 45 Presbyteries. From six of these stations no reports have been received. The reports of seventy-three are incomplete, embracing only a portion of the year. Twenty of these being for one quarter, sixteen for two quarters, and thirty-seven for three. In the stations from which reports have been received, there is a membership of 9,438, while the average attendance upon Divine ordinances has been 16,337. The additions have been 507 on profession and 582 on certificate. The decrease by death or removal has been 552. In the Sabbath Schools connected with these stations there has been an average attendance of 9,704 pupils. These stations have contributed during the year to the Boards of the Church, $4,580, and for the support of their own pastors or missionaries, $49,818. These figures show the membership to be 656; the average attendance, 561; the decrease, 75; the Sabbath School scholars, 1,090, and the contributions for the support of their pastors or missionaries, $189—more than the preceding year. The additions on profession have been 85, on certificate 110, and the contributions to the Boards, $667 less than during the same period. It is worthy of notice that the average attendance upon the Sabbath Schools has been 664—more than during any previous year. These facts, though they may be far from what we have desired, certainly afford no ground for discouragement or despondency in reference to the efficiency of this department of Church service.

Special Missions.—The following stations were placed under this head by the last Assembly:

Omaha, Presbytery of Nebraska.—Rev. Joseph McCartney, who had been laboring in this field for more than two years, closed his earthly ministry and entered the "rest that remaineth for the people of God," on the 17th of October last. This sad bereavement, though a severe affliction, was by no means disastrous to the little band he had so faithfully served. Our lamented brother had done his work well, and therefore it stood firm in the day of trial. Measures were immediately taken to secure a suitable successor. Rev. D. R. Miller was appointed and entered upon the service early in December last, and has since that time been laboring with the most encouraging results. In a recent letter, an active member of the congregation thus speaks: "I think the harvest is just commencing. At our communion in January we had an accession of three members, and at our recent communion we received four more, in all seven in four months. Our average attendance is good. We have a good Sabbath School, which is still growing in numbers and usefulness." They have also a relatively large weekly prayer meeting. It is the desire of the congregation that Brother Miller be reappointed to the field.

Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas.—The missionary assigned to this station by the last Assembly declined the service. After several ineffectual efforts on the part of the Board to secure a missionary, Rev. J. P. Wright was appointed and entered upon the work there at the commencement of the third quarter. The audiences have been increasing in numbers, and the membership of the Church appear to be taking a more active interest in the work.

Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk.—The matter of supplying this field was referred to the Board by the Assembly. Several appointments were made and declined. Though the congregation was generally supplied, it was not until our meeting in December that a stated missionary was secured. Rev. J. C. Herron was then appointed, and has been laboring there since the 1st of January.

Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana.—Rev. J. C. Campbell, reappointed to this charge by the last Assembly, accepted a call to another field about the close of the first quarter. The congregation, with the concurrence of the Board, made an effort to secure the services of a brother settled in another Presbytery. This, however, was not successful; another appointment was made and declined. Brother N. R. Walker, who had been laboring for several months at Madison, Indiana, was recently appointed for the remainder of the year.

Port Huron, Presbytery of Detroit.—This important station has continued under the pastoral charge of Rev. T. W. Montieth during the year.

Chicago, Presbytery of Chicago.—Rev. J. W. Bain resigned the pastorate of this congregation early in the year. The Church was regularly supplied for a time. Recently Rev. W. T. Meloy has been called, and though he has been but a few weeks in the field, and increased and increasing interest is manifested in his labors.

Toledo, Presbytery of Sidney.—The Assembly appropriated two hundred dollars to be expended by the Presbytery in exploring this field. The prospects were such as to lead the Presbytery to apply to the Board for additional aid and the appointment of a missionary, which was complied with. The brother selected for the work was, however, called to another charge, and in view of the condition of our treasury and the large expenditure that would be required, it was deemed expedient for the present to suspend our efforts in that flourishing city.

Warm Springs Indian Mission, Presbytery of Oregon.—Rev. R. N. Fee and wife were appointed to this field early in the year. At that time they were engaged in similar service among the Nez Perces Indians on their reservation in Idaho. Although written to immediately after the appointment, he did not receive official information of it until too late in the season to cross the mountains. In a letter received some time since, it was stated that he would start about the first of April if the season would admit of it. The probability is that he is now at the Warm Springs Agency engaged in his work. We would again commend this Mission especially to the Sabbath Schools of the Church. A very considerable number of them have already shown their interest in this effort for the conversion of the heathen in our own land, a sum sufficient to support the work for the remainder of the current ecclesiastical year having been contributed. A proper effort on the part of those having the supervision of them would secure from our Sabbath Schools all the means required for this service.

Financial Condition of the Board.—On the 30th of April last year the Board was $1,306.81 in debt. This was not fully paid until the 26th of June. The obligations which matured on the 30th of June, were not all paid until the 18th of December. Those which became due on the 30th of September were not fully paid until the 5th of March; those which became due on the 31st of December were not all settled until the 25th of April, while of those which matured on the 31st of March, $3,250.36 are still unpaid and our treasury is overdrawn $63.39. So that although our indebtedness is not as large as we had reason to fear it would be a short time since, it amounts to $3,313.75 In this connection it must not be forgotten that fully $9,000 will be due on the 30th of June, making a sum of at least $12,000, all of which must be paid in less than ninety days from this time or many of our missionaries will be subjected to painful and humiliating embarrassments. We therefore most earnestly ask the Assembly to devise measures that will result the speedy settlement of these claims.

The contributions during the year have been, from Presbyteries, $24,756.60; from Sabbath Schools, $879.55; from Ladies' Missionary Societies, $680.50; from legacies, $3,911.30; from miscellaneous sources, $2,342.86. In all, $32,570.81. Claims amounting to $32,634.20 have been paid during the year. Our income from Presbyteries has been $2,549.09; from Sabbath Schools, $575.53; from Ladies' Societies, $452.45; from legacies, $615.88 more, and from miscellaneous sources, $1,372.02 less than last year. The actual increase, therefore, of our receipts as compared with those of the previous year being $2,820.93.

The term of service of the following members of the Board, Rev. James Kelso, Rev. W. J. Robinson and G. M. Reed, will expire on the 1st of next July.

II.—REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE.

The Nineteenth Annual meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions was held at New Concord, Ohio, beginning Wednesday, May 15th. Fifty-two delegates were present, all the Presbyteries being represented excepting Colorado, Minnesota and Vermont. The Committee was organized by the election of Rev. S. G. Irvine, D. D., of the Presbytery of Oregon, Chairman, and Rev. J. A. Nelson, of the Presbytery of Kansas, Assistant Secretary. We submit the following as the result of our deliberations:

The amount of money desired for the coming year was $47,500. After a careful consideration of the requests of the different Presbyteries, and the relative importance of the several missionary stations, aid was granted to the amount of $42,125, including $4,000 placed at the disposal of the Board to meet the necessities of places referred to it as well as emergencies that may arise during the year. In view of our indebtedness and the financial condition of the country the Committee was compelled in most instances to make appropriations considerably below the actual demands of the service as well as to refrain entirely from inaugurating new enterprises in promising fields that invite our efforts.

The Presbyteries applied for the services of sixty-eight men. The names of one hundred and thirty-six ministers and probationers were reported in accordance with the regulations of the Assembly of 1876. Of these, seventeen are so engaged that they cannot fulfill regular appointments, and were, therefore, necessarily referred back to their own Presbyteries, leaving one hundred and nineteen names for the whole or part of the year, equivalent to the full time of one hundred and thirteen men. Thus the startling truth is before us, that we have the equivalent of forty-five ministers and licentiates able and willing to preach the gospel, who are condemned to an enforced inactivity inasmuch as their services have not been requested by the Presbyteries. As the supply of laborers so far exceeded the requests of the Presbyteries, the Committee felt constrained to limit the time of each appointee to nine months of the year in every case excepting where the missionary was assigned to some particular station or Presbytery for the whole year. And as we could not give employment to the extent desired by those fully qualified for the Gospel ministry, it was deemed best that those who have not finished the regular course of three years' study, and who consequently must return to the Theological Seminary, should not receive appointments for the present year. Even with these limitations rigidly enforced we still found it impossible to give even a moiety of employment to all. Some received no appointments whatever. Some for only one, some for two and some for three quarters of the year. It is a fact that may well arrest the attention of the Church, that the number of missionaries desired by the Presbyteries is decreasing year by year, while the number of applicants for appointment is rapidly on the increase. This matter becomes more serious when we discover that the list of names submitted by the Presbyteries does not include all the unsettled ministers and probationers under their jurisdiction. Had the condition of our treasury and the experience of the past as to what the Church is willing to contribute for this service justified it, new enterprises would have been inaugurated, and new fields occupied, as well as enlarged effort put forth in existing stations that would have given employment to many of these brethren. Thus, on the one hand, the fields are whitening to the harvest, on the other, the laborers are ready and willing to go forth, and yet the Church does not furnish the means necessary for the ingathering of the sheaves. Again, in the reports of the Presbyteries, the amount of service which vacant congregations and mission stations desire and are able to support is placed at the full time of eighty-eight men. Yet the Presbyteries ask for the services of only sixty-eight. Then again, in not a few instances, large and strong congregations which have for years maintained pastors upon comfortable salaries, are reported as desirous of service only part of the time, and in a few cases none whatever. Is there not reason to fear that one most excellent feature of our Home Mission system—that by which the supply of and demand for ministerial service are properly brought together—is gradually but surely going out of use? Can anything be done to save it, or must it soon become a mere matter of history? The manner in which the men and means at our disposal have been distributed will appear from the following tables:

III.—SPECIAL MISSIONS.

The following action was taken with reference to certain missions whose claims were considered by the General Committee:

1. That $800 be appropriated to Omaha, Nebraska, and that Rev. D. R. Miller be re-appointed to the place for the year.
2. That $750 be appropriated to the congregation of Topeka, Kansas, on condition of stated supply or settlement.
3. That $800 be appropriated to Burlington, Iowa, and that Rev. J. A. Pollock be appointed to labor in that field during the year.
4. That $800 be appropriated to Indianapolis, Indiana, and that Rev. S. A. Buck be appointed as the missionary during the year.
5. That $400 be appropriated to Port Huron, Michigan, in accordance with the recommendation of the Presbytery of Detroit.
6. That $500 be appropriated to Oshkosh, Wisconsin, and that Rev. W. A. Spalding be appointed as missionary during the year.
7. That Chase City and Stanton River be referred to the Board of Home Missions.
8. That $1,500 be appropriated to the Warm Spring Indian Mission, and that Rev. R. N. Fee and wife be appointed as missionaries during the year.
9. That Toledo, Ohio, and Oakland, California, be referred to the Board of Home Missions, and that their favorable consideration be invited to these places.
10. That $600 be appropriated to the congregation of Chicago, Illinois.

IV.—MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted and are recommended to the Assembly for consideration and approval:

WHEREAS, God in answer to her prayers, has given to the United Presbyterian Church a large number of efficient ministers, who are willing to serve the Church wherever they may be sent, and has also given to her members the silver and gold, and opened many fields where these laborers could be usefully employed if the means of support were supplied, the withholding of which must be offensive to Him:

AND WHEREAS, The enlargement and earnest prosecution of the work of Home Missions is essential to complete success in every department of the Church's operations, therefore, in view of these facts, and in order to promote this work,

Resolved, 1. That Presbyteries be enjoined carefully to foster all mission stations already established in their bounds, and lose no favorable opportunity of beginning new ones.

2. That Presbyteries, pastors and sessions be recommended to take advantage, as far as practicable, of the presence among them of missionaries of experience, to diffuse through their agency information touching the work of Home Missions.

3. That the Committee appointed to prepare a plan for re-arranging the work of the Board of Home Missions, be directed to report to the next Assembly, for adoption, suitable action in regard to the obligation of Presbyteries to communicate to the Assembly the names of all vacancies within their bounds, with the amount of supply they are able to take; also in reference to the question whether or not stations and vacant congregations shall have liberty to make private arrangements for supplies or be supplied otherwise than through the Superintendent of missions of the Presbytery to which such stations and vacant congregations belong; it being understood that any regulations already in existence touching these matters shall meanwhile continue in force.

4. That Presbyteries, in reporting their unemployed men, be instructed to distinguish between those who are and those who are not able to go where they are appointed.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

During the year the Board has held regular monthly meetings. The work entrusted to our management has received much careful and prayerful consideration. Monthly reports were received from each department in the different localities, and official monthly statements were published. The Board is profoundly grateful to God for His blessing vouchsafed during the year.

KNOXVILLE.

At the close of the last year Rev. J. P. Wright retired from the Mission. At the June meeting of the Board, Rev. J. S. McCulloch, of Harlem, was elected President of the College. He accepted the appointment, and about the middle of August entered on his new and important work. The school opened favorably at the first of September. The first month gave an enrollment of 96. The total enrollment for the year has been 209. The largest average attendance for any one month has been 140. The whole school has been instructed in the ordinary common school branches. In addition there is a class of 25 studying Latin, 1 in Greek, 11 in Algebra, 2 in Higher Arithmetic, and 29 in Geology of Tennessee. The last named branch is only taught in the normal course. It will be seen that the standard is higher than last year. The class of students is correspondingly more advanced. The assistant teachers are Miss Eliza B. Wallace, of Monmouth, Ill.,—elected in place of Miss Agnes Wallace, resigned—and Miss Mattie Baldridge. Miss Ida McCulloch has rendered efficient aid in teaching when the rooms were over-crowded with pupils, for which she has received no compensation.

BRANCH SCHOOL.

A branch Mission was established in East Knoxville on the first of October, Miss Mary Hezlep, teacher. This school is under the direct supervision of President McCulloch. It was opened in a building owned by Miss Emily Austin. She is a devoted Christian worker, and a number of years ago purchased property and established an independent Mission. One year ago, admonished by failing health that she must abandon the work she loved so much, she very kindly proposed to your Board to give her property, free of rent for the year, if we would provide a missionary and carry on the work. The offer was gladly accepted. The school was commenced at the first of October, and has had an enrollment of 78 scholars with an average attendance of 60. This gives a total enrollment in the College and branch school of 287. The total average attendance has been 200. A tuition fee, of fifty cents and twenty-five cents per month, according to the grade, is charged. It is generally paid. The amount thus received is used to defray expenses of the Mission.

RELIGIOUS WORK.

This part of the work is always kept in the ascendency. The Christianizing of these poor home heathen is the great objective of all our efforts. Rev. S. B. Reed's annual report gives us the following facts: The Sabbath morning average attendance for the year has been 134; afternoon, 111. The average attendance in Sabbath School, in the branch Mission, for the year, has been 36. During the same period, 17 colored members have been received into the congregation; 12 on profession of their faith; 11 were baptized. The membership is now 45 colored, 7 white (missionaries and their families); total, 52. The prayer meetings during the year were well attended, often over 100 present. Three services, including the Sabbath School, are conducted every Sabbath—all the missionaries and teachers combining their efforts most cordially and earnestly in this department of the work. The Sabbath collections of the congregation amounted to a little more than fifty dollars during the year. This was all expended for the benefit of the Sabbath School.

THEOLOGICAL STUDY.

At the opening of the term last fall it was agreed to change the plan of conducting the theological department, so as to make the work more diffusive. Under the new plan adopted, one hour was spent each morning with the entire school in the study of a regular course. Under this arrangement Rev. Reed delivered over 100 morning lectures. The arrangement of time and topics was as follows: Monday, "Sacred Geography;" Tuesday, "The Miracles of Christ" (all studied); Wednesday, "The Oriental Features of the Bible" (the land and the book); Thursday, "Doctrinal Theology;" Friday, "Church History." These exercises are reported to us as among the most interesting and profitable of all the services. The first hour of each day was devoted to these lessons, and all the pupils attended regularly.

SEWING SCHOOL.

Mrs. M. J. Reed re-organized the Sewing School early last fall. At the holidays she had four classes, with a total enrollment of seventy-eight. Owing to failing health, she dropped two of the classes at that time, and continued two throughout the Winter. One was for school girls, and the other outside. These two classes contained thirty-nine pupils. This department is self-sustaining, with the assistance received by donation of clothing, piece goods and money, from parties interested in the work. Articles made by the pupils are sold at a very small price to those who can pay. The money thus obtained is used to replenish the stores, or is given to help the very needy. This department is a most important one. Besides teaching the ignorant a very important branch of industry, it is directly a missionary work by which many are reached, assisted and brought directly under the influence of the gospel.

One hundred families of the most needy were assisted, by gifts of clothing and small donations in money, during the winter. Mrs. Reed has heretofore managed this branch of the work gratuitously.

DORMITORIES.

According to the instructions of the last General Assembly, two buildings for dormitories were erected, one for males and one for females. Each has accommodations for twelve students. The cost of these buildings complete was $908.75.

The rooms have all been occupied nearly all the time since the holidays. This provision has already proved quite an advantage. Students come from a distance, and occupy these rooms and board themselves on the "club" plan. Their rooms are always open to the inspection of the faculty, and the students strictly under the rules adopted for the governing of the dormitories. Good order has uniformly been observed, and good results are already apparent.

ADVISORY.

The Board last fall appointed an Advisory Committee of disinterested persons, and requested them to visit the college before the close of the term, carefully inspect the buildings and grounds, and be present at the examination in the schools.

The committee consists of Wm. Rule, Esq., editor of the Knoxville Chronicle (Methodist); Rev. Isaac Emory, agent for American Tract Society Publications in Knoxville (Presbyterian), and Rev. Jas. McNeal (U. P.). The committee visited the College and branch school on the 23d of April, and sent a full report to the Board. The report speaks particularly of each department, and highly commends the entire work. The report closes with these words: "Every attention is given in both the main school and the East Knoxville branch, to the religious instruction of the pupils. We wish to add that this Institution is a growing one. It is already successful, but its future appears to us to be full of promise."

CHASE CITY.

The work at Chase City met with most serious opposition at the beginning of the year, which threatened for a time to break it down altogether. The opposition was originated and carried on by a colored Baptist preacher, who had sought to be employed in some way in connection with our Mission. When he failed in this he made a most determined effort to break down the entire work.

Mr. J. J. Ashenhurst, being a very prudent and careful worker, by the help of the Lord, eventually overcame the opposition, and we have the gratification to report the work in a prosperous and promising condition at present. The Mission is conducted in the usual way. The secular and religious instructions are combined. The enrollment in the day school for the year has been 145, and in the Sabbath School it has been 208. J. J. Ashenhurst and Maggie A. Ashenhurst are the missionaries in this field. The school has been conducted in a rented building. The Sabbath School has been held in the U. P. Church, and the missionaries have been greatly assisted in the Sabbath School work by volunteer teachers from the congregation.

PROPERTY.

There is no change in the status of the old school property in Knoxville since our last report. During the winter Miss Austin proposed to sell to the Board her property which we were occupying in East Knoxville, for $550 (not one-half its original cost), the payments to be $150 cash, the balance in four equal annual payments, without interest. The proposition was accepted. The property is deeded to the Board without incumbrance. It is very suitable for mission purposes, and by possessing it we have control of the entire field.

The Board and the Church are under great obligations to Judge M. L. Hall, of Knoxville, for professional services rendered gratuitously in examining titles, writing deeds and carefully attending to all our property interests.

Vicksburg.—The parties who purchased the mission property in Vicksburg have failed to make the last three payments, with accrued interest. They have not even paid taxes for two years. On discovery of this fact the Board ordered that the mortgage be at once foreclosed. This has been done, and the property will be sold to satisfy our claim, which amounts to $1,125, with accrued interest.

Chase City.—Mr. John Thyne undertook to erect a school building on the lot he so generously donated to the Board. The building is at this time ready for plastering. Mr. Thyne performed the labor of erecting the building gratuitously. The Board furnished the material. The building will be completed ready for occupancy on the first of September, and will probably not cost more than the amount appropriated by the last Assembly for this purpose.

Nashville.—The property in Nashville is leased to the City School Board for three years, at $150 annually. The rent of the building for two years to be retained to repay cost of repairing the building. The lease will expire in 1879.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The receipts for the year ending April 30th, are as follows:

From Presbyteries	$5,883 06
From Congregations	195 95
From Sabbath Schools	292 69
From Ladies' Missionary Societies	85 20
From Individuals	784 95
Balance of a Legacy from Estate of Samuel Henry	341 13
Bequests	820 00
Dividend from Freedmen's Savings Bank	40 00
Balance in Treasury at last report	263 67
Total	$8,706 65

It gives the Board pleasure to report that we have been enabled to meet all our current expenses during the year, and pay $1,600 of the indebtedness of the last. There is in the Treasury $653.61, to pay the salaries which will fall due on the thirty-first of the present month, amounting to $780. Our present indebtedness consists of a note in bank for $1,000. In addition to this we have borrowed from the Trustees of the General Assembly the conditional bequest of Samuel Henry, amounting to $3,341, reported last year.

MISCELLANEOUS.

There are about 25 members of the old organization in Vicksburg, and about 20 in Nashville who remain faithful to our Church. In all these years they have maintained their organization, and they are now, especially the little flock in Vicksburg, earnestly appealing to the Board for assistance, and asking for a Missionary to be sent to them. We ask the Assembly to give the Board instruction in this matter. What shall we do for them?

APPROPRIATION.

The Assembly is requested to appropriate $9,000 for the work for the coming year.

VACANCIES.

The term of office of J. S. Sands, H. J. Murdoch, Peter Dick, and the Corresponding Secretary expires with this year.

By order of the Board.

PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

The appropriations reported last year, and the larger part of the grants of this year have been paid. The congregations helped have very gratefully acknowledged the aid given, and give evidence of the good accomplished by it. The following detailed statement will show the ground of the Board's action in the cases named, and also the progress of the work:

Aledo.—The congregation of Aledo had almost completed a very comfortable house of worship, when on the 25th of June, 1877, it was laid in ruins by a tornado. In consequence of the failure of the contractor, it had already cost more than was anticipated, and the congregation was involved in debt. Encouraged by the action of the Board, the house has been rebuilt and provision made for the removal of all indebtedness. One payment on the loan has been made.

Bellaire.—The appropriation to Bellaire is the balance due under an agreement with the Presbytery of Wheeling previously reported.

Chicago.—The basement of the Church in Chicago has been rented to the city for school purposes. It was the agreement with the Board that the rent should be applied to the payment of the interest on the mortgage, but in settling with their pastor on his removal the rent until July of this year was assigned by the congregation to meet the deficiency in the salary. It therefore became necessary for the Board to meet the interest on the mortgage out of the contributions of the Synod of Illinois. At the first of January the Board effected an assignment of the mortgage to other parties, by which the interest is reduced from ten to six per cent. per annum.

Des Moines.—The congregation in Des Moines has purchased a very desirable lot for $2,800, and will go on with the building as soon as the Board can pay the appropriation made by the General Assembly.

Indianapolis.—The payment of a mortgage held on the property formerly owned by the congregation in Indianapolis was resisted, but the suit terminated favorably to us, and the money has been received. The property now occupied is clear of all incumbrance.

Lawrence, Mass.—In consequence of the peculiar circumstances of the case, it was necessary for the Corresponding Secretary to visit the congregation in Lawrence, Mass., before payment of the appropriation made to it. The advice of attorneys well versed in the law and court decisions of Massachusetts was obtained, and the Board bought the first mortgage on the property as the only way in which its claim could be secured. The Board requested the Trustees of the General Assembly to apply to the General Court for authority by special act to hold property in that State. This authority has since been obtained. All our Church property in Massachusetts should be secured by deed in fee simple to the Assembly.

The death of the Rev. John A. Burns, pastor of the Lawrence congregation, whose sound judgment, rare tact, and deep piety eminently fitted him for the difficult work to which he was called, is a very severe affliction. The Assembly is therefore asked to continue its aid to the congregation through the Board of Home Missions.

Pana.—In 1871 the congregation of Pana obtained help by special collections obtained by the Pastor, and reported to the Board. Something over a year ago the property was sold on judgment obtained by the Pastor for salary not paid. To redeem the property and remove other long standing indebtedness, the Board granted aid on condition that all debt be removed, and a deed of the property be given to the Board. The agent, Hon. J. M. McCullough, for which services the Board is much indebted, reports that this has been done.

Port Huron.—The Board was instructed by the last General Assembly to make a careful investigation of the condition of this congregation, and take the action deemed prudent. As the result of the inquiry, the Board finds that the existence of the congregation depends on provisions being made for the payment of its debt. The Board has, therefore, assumed the payment of the second mortgage, the congregation and Presbytery agreeing to remove the first and an outstanding note.

The congregation is reported to be in a healthy and prosperous condition, with an earnest and efficient pastor. The crushing debt which has thus far weighed it down was contracted in the days of financial prosperity. Part of it was the result of circumstances unforeseen and unavoidable. The peculiar location of the city makes it very important that the congregation be sustained. In the judgment of the Presbytery and of the Board of Home Missions, its maintenance is essential to our cause in Northern Michigan. Being the only Presbyterian organization in the city, our congregation has an open door before it if we can roll away the stone that lies against it.

San Jose.—The Rev. A. Calhoun, pastor of the congregation in San Jose, very energetically prosecuted the work of collecting funds assigned to him by the last General Assembly, and was generously sustained. In order that the congregation might not unduly suffer by his absence, the Board assumed the payment of the amount necessary to complete the appropriation made by the Assembly of 1876. On the 2nd of April the agent of the Assembly reported net receipts from all sources, $3,825 62 currency—equal to $3,653 47 gold, the average rate of exchange being 4½ per cent.—and $600 subscriptions unpaid. The subscriptions were paid to the Board, leaving a balance of $574 38 currency, or $746 53 gold to be paid out of the general fund.

In view of the fact that commercial transactions in California have been conducted on a gold basis, it was submitted to the Board that the appropriation should be paid in gold. The Board did not feel at liberty to decide the point, and therefore paid the currency balance, and refers the question of the kind of money to be used to the decision of the Assembly.

The congregation has purchased a lot 68¾ feet by 137½, on the corner of Santa Clara and Fifth streets, for $5,600 gold. There is on it a house which can be moved to the rear of the lot and made available for renting.

Of the contributions made for this mission one was a loan of $500 for four years without interest, and another was a loan of $500 without interest for a period not defined, but not forming any part of the loan fund of the Board. The congregation has given a mortgage for $4,000 on one hundred feet of the front part of the lot, reserving 37½ feet by 68¾ unencumbered. It was the judgment of the Board that the mortgage should cover the whole lot, but the congregation thought it better to reserve a part unencumbered, that, if need be, it might, with the consent of the Board, be made available for raising building funds either by mortgage or sale. The Board has also required security for the first named $500 loan. The house is estimated to cost $4,000.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The hopes of a year ago have not been realized, and the Board is not able to report that all appropriations have been paid as they matured. The present liabilities of the Board are: To Des Moines, $5,000; to Port Huron, $2,250; appropriations due on or before July 1, $1,188; other appropriations, $500; note without interest, $400; total, $9,338. Balance in treasury, $1,827 97.

THE LOAN FUND.

The receipts for the Loan Fund have been $3,576 04. Of this $1,068 50 was from loans repaid. The fund now amounts to $53,804 84. The greater part of the congregations whose loans are matured have declared their present inability to meet them, but in general show a disposition to do all in their power. The Board is necessarily, to a great extent, dependent on the watchful care of Presbyteries for the protection of these funds from loss by the negligence of congregations. The congregations of Edgerton, Cuba, Pawnee City, Americus, Titusville, Aledo and Lawrence, Mass., have made payments, and Centerville, Iowa, has paid in full. A statement of the loans is herewith submitted.

CONGREGATIONAL BONDS.

The last General Assembly authorized the Board to guarantee congregational bonds in certain cases. Under this act the bonds of the Seventh Church, Pittsburgh, have been indorsed to the amount of $15,000, and a mortgage has been taken for the same amount and any additional expense that may be incurred. Of these bonds $10,000 are without interest, and only $1,000 can mature each year. The amount sold is only $1,160.

SECURITIES RECEIVED.

The following securities have been received during the year:

REAL ESTATE UNSOLD.

The Waupaca church has not been rented during the past year, and there is no immediate prospect of a sale.

The Nebraska City property is also unsold. The agent, the Rev. D. C. Wilson, found it necessary to institute legal proceedings to recover certain rents from a former trustee, and has obtained a favorable judgment, but an appeal has been taken to a higher court. The Board gratefully acknowledges the faithfulness and efficiency with which Mr. Wilson has discharged his duties as the agent of the Board.

The vacant lot in Omaha has been leased for five years from May 1, 1877, for $75 a year, for two years, and $100 a year for three years, the lessee to have the option of buying at the termination of the lease. The Board is under obligations to Mr. T. S. McMurray for valuable services as its agent.

The Second Church, Leavenworth, Kansas, having been dissolved, the property has been placed in the hands of an agent for sale.

ESTIMATES.

From all the information before the Board concerning the work for the coming year the General Assembly is requested to make the same appropriations as in former years.

VACANCIES.

The terms of office of Rev. D. M. B. McLean, Mr. Samuel Dyer, and Rev. C. B. Hatch, and of the Corresponding Secretary expire with this year.

The Board does not submit any recommendations to the General Assembly, but asks careful deliberation and mature action in reference to this important part of the work of the Church. With the full appropriation paid in, every mission station would soon be able to own a house of worship, and thus become a permanent dweller in its place, instead of a tentless wanderer.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board,

J. M. JOHNSTON, President.
A. G. WALLACE, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

In making this our Eighteenth Annual Report, we would first record the goodness of God in preserving the lives and health of all the members and employees of the Board. He has also protected our property, not only from the ordinary perils of fire and theft, and railroad disaster, but from the more terrible evil of riot that held such high carnival in our city in July last; so that nothing has been lost in these ways. Our customers, amid the stagnation, and wide-spread bankruptcy of business have generally been enabled and disposed to meet their obligations. Our patrons have favored us with their orders, and our benefactors have sent us their donations in about the usual amounts.

From many to whom aid was granted from our small means, we have received assurances of gratitude felt, and good accomplished. Hence we are encouraged to believe "that our labor is not in vain, in the Lord."

We refer with great satisfaction to the entire extinction of the building debt by the payment, since the date of our last report, of the remaining mortgage of $5,000. This during a year of great business depression, and with the contributions to this Board of only $1,474 16 cannot but be gratifying.

The only new works issued during the year are those (two) already mentioned as in press: "The Four Evangelists," by Rev. Edward Thompson, of Edinburgh —and "The Olive Tree," an original work by E. H. Young, Esq. The former has been favorably noticed in the papers. The latter, now in the hands of the binder, is a masterly presentation of the identity and development of the Old and New Testament Church, under the Scriptural emblem of the Olive tree.

For books formerly issued by ourselves and others, especially the more solid and substantial, the demand has been fair. For Catechisms of different kinds, there has been an increased demand; showing a healthy practice among our people. Of Bibles and Psalm books, the sales have about equalled those of preceding years.

Several manuscripts were sent in to compete for the Prizes offered by direction of Assembly, of $100 and $50 respectively for the first and second best. But in the judgment of the Committee of Award, though several were good, none were of a character to warrant the awarding of a prize for the purpose intended. The Board, however, has renewed the offer, and given notice accordingly, through the papers of the Church.

Our financial condition appears from the following:

A form of request for donations has been prepared, and is furnished to all desiring aid.

The terms of office of Rev. W. R. McKee and Messrs. T. McCance and R. E. Stewart, expire with this meeting.

The Board ask the special attention of Assembly to the following three points:

1. The terms on which the copyright of our Publications, especially the Revised Psalm Book, may be granted, if at all, to other publishers. The Church having paid large sums for the preparation of these books, has a right to compensation. Will she forego this right, at least so long as she by her Board is able and willing to meet the demand at the lowest practicable rates?

2. The second point to which we would call attention, is the Revision of "THE PSALTER," and the "SABBATH SCHOOL PSALMODIST." These were prepared as private enterprises, to meet a want in the music of the Church. They measurably answered their purpose, but the time will come, if it has not already arrived, requiring a revision of these, in respect both to form and contents (the tunes.) Believing this to be a matter of general interest, the Board has not felt it best to yield to certain local demands on this subject; and though some dissatisfaction has been produced, we feel that all will eventually approve our course as the better one. We would ask that this subject receive your careful attention, and that suitable action be taken.

3. The third point relates the establishing of a weekly Sabbath School paper. Having called the attention of the Assembly to this subject in former reports, and the Assembly having referred the whole subject to a Committee to report at this meeting, we deem it unnecessary to do more than to reiterate our sense of the importance of this to the Church's interest, and express a hope that this Assembly will take definite action on the subject.

And now, Brethren and Fathers, we again appeal to you, and through you to the Church, for a more liberal support, that we may do a more liberal and beneficial work. Simply as a business enterprise this Board has not been a failure. It has been a success. It has sustained itself when others with more promising prospects have failed. But it should be, and it is our aim to make it more than a business success. It should be a large almoner of God's word to the needy, an agent by which the offerings of all, rich and poor, may be combined, and most economically distributed among the destitute. Our existence as a Board is comparatively brief, our means small, and our plans necessarily more or less imperfect and incomplete. We hope and labor for better things. You, and you only, can enable us to realize these, not by cold reserve and indifference, but by generous sympathy and support in all that is right; and by counsel and advice in anything needing correction or improvement. Think of us as your own Board. Speak of and for us; help us; make yourselves and your people acquainted with our work and our wants. Above all, and with all, pray for the Board of Publication and its officers and employees, as well as for our Mission Boards and their officers and employees. Call on us for aid; if in our power it will be rendered; but do not expect that we can give where we have not first received.

By order of the Board.

Respectfully submitted,
S. COLLINS, Superintendent

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Since our last report, seventeen young men, preparing for the ministry, have been aided by the funds of the Church, as distributed by this Board. Fifteen of these are Theological Students; one a member of the Senior Class of Wooster, Ohio, University; one a member of the Senior Class of Monmouth College. The latter is preparing for the Foreign Mission work, and a special appropriation was granted in his favor, at the urgent request of his Presbytery.

The report of our Treasurer, regularly audited, accompanies this report, showing money received and disbursed, as follows:

Received—
From late Treasurer		$ 22 24
From Presbyteries		2,290 54
From Sabbath Schools		13 25
From Individuals		218 00
From Legacies		335 00
From Beneficiary now in U. P. Church		25 00
From Beneficiaries who have withdrawn from U. P. Church		625 00
From Interest		2 50
Total Receipts		$3,531 53
Expenditures—
To Beneficiaries	$1,100 00
To Salary Corresponding Secretary	300 00
To Contingent Expenses	60 55
To Money Loaned	300 00
To Legacy Refunded	150 00
To Overdraft	10 00
Total Expenditures		$1,920 55
Balance on hand		$1,610 98

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

Indebtedness—
1. Speer Estate, two notes,
Principal	$2,895 00
Interest	303 97
		$3,198 97
2. Beneficiaries, balance of one-half contributions not yet paid		225 22
			$3,424 19

Resources—

1.	Loans, principal and interest	$ 781 07
2.	Cash on hand	1,610 98
			$2,392 05
	Balance, (net indebtedness,)		$1,032 14

In carrying out the instructions of the Assembly for the liquidation of former indebtedness, one-half of all money contributed has been reserved for this purpose, leaving in the Treasury of the Board, as appears from the above statement of the financial condition, the sum of $225.22 due, and yet to be paid to the beneficiaries.

It will be seen that of the appropriation made by the last Assembly of $7,000, less than one-third has been placed at the disposal of the Board by actual contributions of the Church. The result has been that the Beneficiaries have only received one-half of the amount for which they were recommended by Presbyteries.

The names of students receiving aid are herewith transmitted to the Assembly, and we believe it will be found upon examination, that all are worthy the liberality and confidence of the Church.

It is known to the Assembly that students receiving aid from the Board are required to give the following obligation: "I hereby agree, that if I do not, in due course of time, enter the ministry of the United Presbyterian Church, or at any time voluntarily forsake the same, the sum received shall then become due and payable, at the pleasure of the Board, with six per cent. interest per annum from date." During the past six months there has been refunded $625 by brethren who had received aid on this condition, and subsequently left the ministry of our Church. There is still a considerable sum owed by others. Much of this we hope to receive.

The indebtedness of our Board being greatly diminished, we hope during the year to pay into the hands of Beneficiaries the full amount of money contributed by the Church; seeking to collect from other sources a sufficient amount to meet remaining liabilities.

In view of the fact that the contributions of the Church hereafter will be applied directly for the benefit of students, and not as heretofore, for the payment of old indebtedness, may we not confidently expect the co-operation of every minister, elder and member in this important department of our work as a Church?

1st. We ask the Assembly to approve the action of the Board in making a special appropriation to Mr. A. B. Caldwell—a college student—a native of India, who is preparing for the Foreign Mission work.

2d. That an appropriation of $6,000 be granted the Board for the coming year.

3d. The office of Corresponding Secretary is now vacant. Also term of office of Rev. D. A. Wallace, D. D., Rev. D. M. Ure and Mr. J. H. Martin (deceased,) expires at this time.

It is for the Assembly to elect.

Respectfully submitted,

D. M. URE, President, pro tem.
W. T. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The Board have pleasure in stating to the Assembly in this their fifth annual report that they have been instrumental in extending aid during the year to five aged or disabled ministers, and to seven families of ministers deceased. In all cases, it is believed, the assistance has been gratefully received, and burdens occasioned by age, infirmity and need of worldly good, have been greatly lightened by the felt sympathy and help of Christian brethren throughout the churches.

The Presbyteries making application for aid have uniformly endeavored to comply with the rules of the Board, and to do their part to make our work pleasant and efficient for good. It has been our aim to place the responsibility mainly upon them, and to comply with their judgment in each case so far as possible.

It gratifies the Board to say to the Assembly that the case of Mrs. Seaton, reported to the last Assembly by the Presbytery of Butler, and referred by the Assembly to the Board with authority "to make any arrangements with the Asylum that may be in their power," has been satisfactorily adjusted. On corresponding with the authorities of the Asylum at Harrisburg, Pa., it was ascertained that they would not require the Board to give a bond of security for the support of Mrs. Seaton in the institution. As the only difficulty which the Board had in the case was thus removed, the care of Mrs. Seaton was at once transferred from the Presbytery to the Board—the Presbytery, however, retaining the oversight of her case so far as to make application annually to the Board for her support in the Asylum, accompanied with a statement of her condition and circumstances.

As the Board has not been many years in existence and the Presbyteries have not yet become familiar with its rules and modes of procedure, it may be useful in this connection to give them a few instructions. The following items are indicated as a guide in all ordinary cases:

1. When a minister is disqualified for work by age or infirmity, the members of his Presbytery should at once, and with prudence, consider whether he has adequate means of worldly support. The same care should be taken in the case of the family of a minister who has been removed by death.

2. In all ordinary cases a member or members of the Presbytery should consult with those supposed to be in need before application is made to the Board. The worldly circumstances are not always accurately known, and sometimes feelings of sensitive persons are hurt by making application for them without their knowledge. The Christian duty of thus seeking to help others is often a delicate one, and should be discharged in such a way as to spare the feelings of the most sensitive. Prudence will dictate the best mode to be pursued in each individual case.

3. When need is known to exist, and the needy are willing to receive aid, the Clerk or a member of the Presbytery should send to the Corresponding Secretary of the Board for a blank form of application. This will be sent at once, and it will give the necessary information in order to have the application formally presented by the Presbytery to the Board.

4. It should be remembered by Presbyteries that grants are ordinarily made by the Board for but one year. If aid is needed beyond that time the application is to be renewed, accompanied with a statement of any changes that have taken place during the year in the circumstances of the applicant.

The Treasurer's report, which has been audited and found correct, shows that the receipts for the year have been as follows: From Presbyteries, $1,638 49; interest on funds invested, $699 38; total, $2,307 87. The expenditures have been: For beneficiaries, $1,407 22; incidental, $14 50; total, $1,421 72. The balance of the receipts has been safely invested.

It will thus be seen that the receipts have not equalled those of last year, while the expenditures have been more than doubled. There is no reasonable doubt that the expenditures will rapidly increase as the workings of the Board become better known. Unless the receipts shall correspondingly increase, this Board will soon be loudly complaining of want of funds as the other Boards are. It will be compelled to refuse in whole or in part applications from the Presbyteries, and hearts of God's aged or disabled servants, and of widows and orphans will be pained as the result. Just as we are writing this report there comes a letter from an aged minister, in which he says that his application for assistance had been sent a month ago by his Presbytery. As yet he had heard nothing in relation to it, and adds: "I am in straitened circumstances and not able to help myself. If you got the application, let me know about what time I may expect the money." He was at once informed that the application had been granted, and that the first installment would be sent at once by the Treasurer. What would have been the aged father's feelings had the Board been compelled to tell him that there was no money in the treasury, and that he must wait probably for months before any could reach him? Such will soon have to be the nature of our reply to needy beneficiaries if the churches shall not more generally and generously contribute to our fund. Such a result, the very contemplation of which saddens us, can be avoided if pastors and elders will now do their duty. The cause, which this Board pleads, appeals very strongly to Christian feelings. Few can resist it if properly presented. Let it be brought plainly before each congregation throughout the Church, and we are sure the result will be gratifying. We regret to say that many congregations, and some whole Presbyteries, have heretofore apparently ignored the Board's existence. We trust that we shall not have to repeat this unpleasant statement in another annual report.

The permanent endowment fund of $50,000, established by the last Assembly, has evidently awakened but little interest and received but little attention. It is a matter of great importance to the future efficiency of the Board, and we hope the Assembly will urge it upon the attention of the churches.

The term of office of Messrs. Henry Harrison and James McCandless, and of the Rev. W. C. Jackson, expires at this meeting of the Assembly.

The Board would conclude their report by respectfully recommending:

1. That the Assembly direct the attention of Presbyteries to the mode of procedure in making applications to the Board, as indicated in this report.

2. That the attention of Presbyteries be specially directed to the rapid increase in the expenditures of the Board and of the consequent necessity of securing contributions to its fund from every congregation under their care.

3. That the necessity for raising the endowment fund authorized by the last Assembly be pressed upon the attention of the churches and of individuals to whom God has given worldly means.

W. W. BARR, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

Fifty-three Presbyteries have, according to requirement, communicated with your Committee. As the result of a careful review of the general news of the churches, as well as of the official papers put in our hands, we present the following:

NARRATIVE.

1. The Ministry.—The Lord has been pleased to call, within the past year, seven of his servants in the ministry of the gospel to Himself—R. H. Pollock, D. D., John Scott, D. D., G. D. Henderson, Robert Scott, Joseph McCartney, Jonathan Stewart and John A. Burns. Of these, two were on the roll of the last Assembly, and were active in its proceedings. Scarcely had they returned to their charges, and resumed their pastoral labors, until they were called away. The suddenness of their departure adds force to the admonition of the Master—"Be ye also ready." All of these, our fellow-servants, were good men and true. Some of them had spent many years, and endured much hardness, in the service of Christ. Their praise is in all the churches. One of them, John Scott, D. D., was a father in Israel, full of days, of the riches of the Spirit, and of honor. Others had just fairly entered upon the work of the ministry, but with such fervency of spirit, and whole-hearted devotedness, as gave promise of great things. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord.

It will gladden the Church to know that the Lord has added to the number of His ministerial servants many more than He has removed. Fifteen young men have been licensed as probationers, and twenty-three have taken upon themselves the vows of ordination. It becomes the Church to be mindful of these in her prayers, that they may, from the very beginning of their service, be endued with power from on high for the work of the ministry, for the building up of the body of Christ.

The installations reported are in excess of the releases by fifteen.

2. The Membership.—The word has not been unfruitful. While His servants have been planting and watering, the Lord has given increase. In one or more congregations, in fourteen several Presbyteries, the Spirit has put forth His power, more than ordinarily, for the reviving of God's people, and the conversion of sinners. Many have professed their faith in Christ, and been enrolled as His followers. About 500 have been added from families outside of the Church. The whole number admitted to full privileges, on profession of faith, is at least 3,600. This is 600 more than the new enrollment of last year. In view of so much gain in the fruitfulness of her work for the salvation of souls, let the Church thank God, and take courage. The Lord has been mindful of her. He will bless her. "The Lord shall increase you more and more, you and your children."

STATE OF RELIGION.

Is the spiritual life of our ministry and membership healthy and vigorous? Does their love abound, and are they filled with the fruits of righteousness? From every point of view this is a serious, and even a solemn question. In the fear of God, and by the light of His word and of ascertained facts, your committee has endeavored an answer. The principal known facts bearing upon the question are these:

1. Our people do not forsake the assembling of themselves together. They seem to be glad when it is said to them: "Let us go into the house of the Lord." The Presbyteries, with scarcely one exception, report good attendance upon the stated ministration of the word and ordinances. This is not an infallible sign of spiritual health, but yet is of such value in our present inquiry, that it must not be left out of the account. There must be some love to God in the hearts of a people generally, who are so diligent in waiting upon Him in His stated public worship. And besides, if the same people are found, on other evidence, to need spiritual quickening, the fact of their frequenting the house of God makes their case unspeakably more hopeful than it would otherwise be.

2. There is good reason to believe that there is throughout the Church a growing delight in social prayer. The congregations having no weekly devotional meeting are relatively few. They are, chiefly, in the western Presbyteries, and the reason of their lack is, probably, the smallness and scattered situation of their membership. Nearly all the Presbyteries report the observance by their congregations of special seasons of prayer, with good attendance and happy results.

From this fair showing there is one drawback, the continued relatively small attendance of men at these meetings for prayer, whether stated or special. Whatever may be the immediate reason for this absenteeism, the fact itself is unquestionably indicative of the need of greater fulness of spiritual life in the churches. It is a standing reproach to the Christian profession, and causes the hands of many a pastor, and Christian worker, to hang down. Viewed in whatever light, it is an evil so serious and lamentable, that the Church should, by some means, be aroused to a realization of it. It may be she would then set herself in earnest for its removal, and, through the divine blessing, be successful.

It falls under this head to speak of special devotional exercises held under Presbyterial auspices, such as Sabbath School conventions, and conference meetings. These have been quite general, if not universal, throughout the Presbyteries. They have been largely attended, and proved more or less reviving. In addition to this, we must not fail to note, that in the stated meetings of Church Courts, Presbyteries, Synods and Assembly, there has been, for some years, a steadily increasing manifestation of a devotional spirit. It is believed that the number of these courts which meet only to transact business, and then dissolve, is happily growing less. It seems to be more and more widely true of ministers and elders, that when they come together they cannot disperse without speaking one to another of the Lord and His love, and again, and again, drawing near to the throne of grace. This is a favorable indication as to the present state of the Church, and a hopeful sign as to the future.

3. Family Religion.—"Is Family Worship general?" A large majority of the Presbyteries answer: "Yes." Some seem not to know how it is in their congregations, and a few bear testimony against themselves. The reports as to the observance of Family Instruction are not so favorable. Some confess its general neglect. The greater number speak very uncertainly. Only twelve give a decidedly favorable answer. A review of them all leaves the impression that in the Church, as a whole, there is a great lack of faithfulness in this particular. Whether or not this unfaithfulness is spreading, we have no means of determining. It certainly exists at this present time to a serious extent. To an equal extent there is wanting evidence of healthy spiritual life now, and promise of its invigoration in the time to come.

The obligation upon parents to instruct their families is perpetual, and untransferable. "These words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thy heart, and thou shalt teach them diligently to thy children." No authority can make void this precept; no advantages enjoyed elsewhere can supercede the instruction it enjoins within the household; no human power, nor device, can avert, or lessen, the evils consequent upon its neglect. The welfare of the household, the perpetuation of a godly seed, the purity and strength of the Church, the salvation of a godless and perishing world, are all so dependent upon faithfulness in family instruction throughout the Church, that without it they cannot but be greatly hindered, and more or less imperiled. "For He established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which He commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children; that the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born, who should arise and declare them to their children; that they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments, and might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, and a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not steadfast with God."

By what means may the evil of which we have been speaking be arrested, and removed? The situation certainly calls for the more diligent use of these two, on the part of pastors. First, thorough and earnest instruction from the pulpit on the responsibility of heads of families for the religious teaching of their households; and second, systematic and searching visitation from house to house. It would be well if we could learn how far old fashioned, catechetical family visitation has been given up. Such knowledge would probably discover, to the conviction of all, that there is, in general, an intimate connection between the faithful performance of this kind of visitation and faithfulness in family instruction. It would likely be found that the Presbyteries which give the most decidedly favorable answer as to the observance of family instruction within their bounds, are those in which the pastors adhere most strictly to the rule of the fathers in the character of their visitations. That this method of pastoral work has, pretty widely, been laid aside, will not be questioned by those who have taken any pains to inform themselves. In most cases it has been done in good faith, in the persuasion that the Sabbath School, and the Bible Class, bring the pastor and the families of his charge so frequently and so closely together, as to render unnecessary the laborious houshold visitations practised by the fathers, and still performed by many. This persuasion is false. As many of us as have been acting upon it have abundant and painful proof of its falsity. We have been deceived, to the crippling of our strength, and the injury of the families committed to our care. Let us, while making full proof of the pastoral opportunities given us in the classes on the Sabbath, return also to the good old way of systematic, searching, family visitation, and, with the divine blessing upon our labors, future reports will have a brighter page in answer to the question, "How is Family Instruction observed?"

4. In the search for evidence on the question of the Church's spiritual health and vigor, it is of very special importance that inquiry be made concerning the liberality of her people in supporting and spreading the gospel. Spiritual life is pre-eminently godlike. It is, therefore, a life of love, for God is love. Every one who loveth, is born of God and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God. True love is appreciative. It prizes and delights in its object. True love is operative. It impels to action and sacrifice, if need be, for the honor or welfare of its object. The love of God is not a mere emotion, hid away in His own breast. It has been manifested in the gift of His only begotten Son, that we might live through him. Godlike love in the soul will also manifest itself according to its measure, and in a Godlike manner. The healthfulness and vigor of the Church's life must, therefore, be tried by the love of her people to God, and to men, as manifested in their gifts for the support and spread of the gospel of the Son of God. These gifts, as things are now ordered, must for the most part pass through the treasuries of the congregations and Boards. What then are the facts? "Is there a liberal spirit in supporting the work of the congregations and Boards?"

The only information before your Committee, respecting contributions for congregational work, relates to salaries of pastors. The lowest average salary reported is $350; the highest is $1,500. In the majority of Presbyteries the average is from $600 to $1,000. Little can be made of these figures, chiefly because we are not informed how far grants from the Treasury of the Board of Home Missions have been counted in them. As to promptness in meeting engagements with pastors, we have this fact—230 congregations (considerable over one-fourth of the whole number,) are in arrears, more or less, for the salaries of the past year. Only nine Presbyteries report themselves without at least one congregation in debt. We are necessarily so ignorant of all the circumstances in these several cases, it seems best, especially in view of the times, to hazard neither comment nor inference.

As to the support of the Boards, the case is clearer. It appears from figures authoritatively published, that but little more than one-half of the appropriations of the last Assembly have been met by the contributions of the people. The sum required was at the average rate of $2 per member. The sum actually given, up to a late date, is at the average rate of only a little more than $1 per member. Perplexed Boards, starving laborers, a crippled service, a dishonored cause, a retarded Gospel, and souls unsaved, are the result. What is the just and necessary inference from this fact as to the state of religion in the Church? Is her spiritual life healthy and vigorous? Does the love of her people to God, and to men for God's sake, abound? In the light of God's word the answer is plain. Judged by her barrenness of this fruit of righteousness, her love appears little—her spiritual life sickly and feeble. "Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?"

It will be offered in explanation and extenuation of the Church's delinquency, that the stringency of the times continues, and has even increased. To a wide extent this is true, and should not be overlooked in judging of the situation. Hundreds in our congregations have been reduced from affluence to a very limited income; and other hundreds from a comfortable living to a state little removed from beggary. Very many have learned their need of increased faith to refrain from taking thought for the morrow, and from asking anxiously: "What shall we eat? What shall we drink? Wherewithal shall we be clothed?" But after all reasonable allowance has been made for this extraordinary state of things, it remains evidently true that the Church has fallen sadly short of her duty to her Lord, and to the world He loved, and in so far has failed to manifest her possession of the life of God. It would certainly require great effrontery to maintain that, even in this time of financial distress, there is so little of this world's good in the hands of the 80,000 professed disciples of Christ in the United Presbyterian Church as to render them unable to contribute in a whole year, for the spread of the Gospel at home and abroad, at the average rate of $2 each. It merits no discussion—abundant means do still remain with our aggregate membership for carrying forward all the present enterprises of the Church, and meeting the authorized requirements of all the Boards. But one thing is lacking—greater fullness of the life of God—a more universal and larger communication of the spirit of Him, who, though He was rich, yet for our sakes became poor, that we through His poverty might be rich.

It may be urged, as against the argument just presented, that the Church's delinquency may be altogether accounted for by the fact of general pastoral unfaithfulness in teaching and exhorting; or by the fact that the prevalent methods of gathering money for the Lord's treasury are unscriptural. Doubtless these two things have more to do in causing continued deficiency in the funds of the Church than many suspect, or are willing to believe. But these evils themselves exist only through lack of spiritual light and vigor. They but strengthen the proof of the Church's need of a great quickening. In the face of the testimony, ministers, elders and private members all stand convicted of sin, in that they have been seeking their own, and not the things which are Christ's. Let us look again unto Him whom we have pierced—let the Holy Spirit mightily shed abroad the love of God in our hearts, and quickly there shall be a great change. The love of Christ will constrain us, so that we shall no longer count either ourselves, or any of the things we have, our own.

These few sentences on the Church's spiritual state, as evidenced by the measure of her liberality, have brought us to the entrance to a wide and inviting field of discussion and practical reflection. Such inquiries as these start up: What connection is there, under Christ's providential government, between the meagerness of the Church's contributions to His cause, and the financial distress from which so many of her people are suffering? "There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty." Again, what should we infer, as to the state of religion in the Church, from the fact that amid all that is said about the present distress, there is so much murmuring, and so little humble and penitent recognition of the Lord's righteous judgment? "The people turneth not unto Him that smiteth them." But your Committee do not deem it their duty to go farther.

In the above review we have abundant proof that the Lord has not cast us, as a Church, away from His presence, nor taken His Holy Spirit from us. We are not utterly idle and unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. But we have, at the same time, the gravest reason to believe that He who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks, and who hath His eyes like unto a flame of fire, does not find our works perfect before God—that He has somewhat against us.

We have left our first love. His word of warning is—"Repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent." His word of gracious instruction is—"In Me is thy help, whom God hath exalted with His right hand, a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins."

On behalf of the Committee,

W. L. WALLACE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Our report for the year just closing will differ but little from what was presented by your Committee to the last Assembly.

The field, the work, and the workers continue about the same as they were last year.

From the reports received we present the following

STATISTICS.

Number of Schools open twelve months	386
Number of Schools open less than twelve months	94
Whole number reported	480
Number of scholars enrolled	48,054
Average attendance	32,727
Increase during the year about	3,000
(A few Schools report a slight decrease.)
Children of unchristian parents	5,303
Scholars attending Church about	30,000
Church members in Schools about	11,000
Officers in the Schools	1,498
Teachers in the Schools	4,455
Teachers not members of the Church	36
Scholars making a profession of faith	1,711
Classes studying Shorter Catechism	2,500
Adults in Bible classes	15,000
Volumes in libraries	33,644
Contributions of Schools	$19,803
Expenses of Schools	14,808
Amount paid by congregations	3,398

About one-half of the contributions of the Schools was applied to current expenses, and the other half was given to the several Boards of the Church.

If all Schools would send us full and accurate reports we could make a better showing in our report.

ENCOURAGEMENTS.

The above statistics, imperfect as they are, show that our Sabbath Schools in general are in a healthy and prosperous condition.

This field of labor is very inviting and promising, and the work growing in interest and importance.

The Schools are becoming more systematic and efficient in their working, as is shown by the remarkably good attendance of teachers, elders, pastors and missionaries.

The number of scholars is steadily increasing, and the schools are sending a goodly number of recruits into the Church, and thus the bond of union and sympathy is yearly growing stronger, the hearts of parents turning more and more to their children, and the hearts of children to their parents.

The careful and prayerful study of the word of God, the discipline and experience in teaching it, and the intimate knowledge of the children, secured to pastors elders and teachers in Sabbath School work, cannot fail to increase their skill and efficiency as workers in their respective spheres in the congregation.

And when this good cause engages the minds and hearts of all the members of the Church, then we shall have practical demonstration of the importance of the Sabbath School as an agent in doing the Lord's work in preaching the gospel to the poor and lengthening the cords and strengthening the stakes of Zion.

The books and papers that are circulated in Christian homes, and in homes that are not Christian, by means of the Sabbath School, must, we think, accomplish much good in the way of quickening minds and touching hearts that would otherwise be left in the darkness and coldness of worldliness and unbelief.

And if all our schools were furnished with libraries, such as they might and ought to have, and reading matter of the right kind and in proper quantity were distributed to the children every Sabbath, they would thus be more thoroughly furnished for good work at home.

What shall our children read? is an important question of immediate and pressing interest, and one which the Church ought to answer in a wise and practical way.

Many of the secular presses are answering it in a way that, in the experience of our children, especially of our boys, will prove disastrous to their moral and spiritual health.

The only way to counteract poisonous literature and banish it from our homes and schools is to furnish a cheap, attractive and sound Christian literature. This, when provided by the Church, can be put into general circulation and use most speedily and efficiently by means of the Sabbath School.

In this way the Church can reach all her own families with her books and papers, and can find her way into those godless homes whose children attend her schools. There remaineth yet very much land to be possessed, and the command of the Master is: "Go up and possess the land, for ye are able."

A majority of the schools give papers three Sabbaths in the month, use the "National Uniform Lesson Series," and the helps found in the "U. P. Worker" and other papers of our Church. From this fact it is probable that whatever paper and other helps for Sabbath School work the Church might establish, would soon find liberal patronage in her schools and homes.

Other papers and helps are resorted to principally because they are considered better and cheaper than our own.

ACTION OF PRESBYTERIES.

According to the instruction of the last Assembly, Sabbath School Superintendents have been appointed in thirty-five Presbyteries. And we would suggest that the Assembly recommend the continuance in office of these appointees, and direct those Presbyteries that have not yet complied with their instructions to appoint suitable persons to act as Superintendents in compliance with the action of the Assembly of last year.

During the year thirty-six Presbyteries held conventions in the interest of the Sabbath School.

The reports from these show that such conventions are profitable in promoting an interest in the work, and in diffusing a knowledge of the best methods of carrying it forward successfully.

ACTION OF SYNODS.

All the Synods, except the First Synod of the West and the Synod of Ohio, had the subject of Sabbath Schools before them and took action commendatory of the work and encouraging to the workers.

It is the opinion of your Committee that every Synod should give some time of each meeting to the consideration of this very important and interesting branch of the Church's work. Let the Church give all proper care and encouragement to her several Boards, but let not the fifty or sixty thousand children in her Sabbath Schools be overlooked in the meetings of her courts.

When pastors preach of their importance, and Presbyteries, Synods and General Assemblies take action in their interest, the people will begin to appreciate their worth, and will pray and labor and give more for their maintenance, success and continued progress.

MUSIC.

Many of the schools call for improved Sabbath School music.

Would it not be well for the Assembly to appoint a judicious committee to prepare a book of selections and music for the use of our schools?

Congregational singing, which has not yet attained unto perfection in our Church, would be much improved in a few years by greater attention to the development and cultivation of the taste and talent for music in the youth, who, in a short time, will compose the Church and manage her affairs.

CATECHISM AND DISTINCTIVE DOCTRINES.

More attention to the study of the Catechism is demanded by some pastors and superintendents, and it has been suggested that a series of lessons with notes be prepared on it, for the use of the Schools in our Church. And some even insist on our Distinctive Doctrines having a place in the lessons. It may be observed in this connection that the Catechism is now taught in twenty-five hundred classes in our schools. And there is nothing to prevent pastors and sessions having it taught in all the classes, and using such helps to its proper understanding as are now available.

And the same remark applies to our Distinctive Doctrines.

Teachers, who understand and believe them, can inculcate and enforce them as they are suggested by the Scripture lessons that pass under review from Sabbath to Sabbath. Or they can be taught as the Catechism is now taught, by assigning the classes one or two of them to be memorized and recited every Sabbath, and then the teachers can explain them as they do the Scripture lesson.

Pastors and sessions have the entire control of these things.

See Directory for Worship, Chapter eighth, Article first.

NOTES, &C.

Notes and lesson papers were prepared during the year by Rev. Robert Stewart, D. D., and Rev. John Morrow, and the thanks of the Committee, and of the Assembly are due to these worthy brethren and willing workers.

And we have the pleasure of reporting to you that the Committee have succeeded in obtaining the consent of Dr. James Harper of Newburg, to prepare Notes, &c., for the first half of the year, July to December, 1878.

In conclusion we would suggest that the Assembly will confer a favor on the friends of the Sabbath School by appointing a conference to be held during its sittings, at which this important subject may be considered.

Respectfully submitted,

R. B. EWING, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE PRESERVATION OF OLD RECORDS.

The Executive Committee on the Preservation of Records and other Historic Documents, respectfully reports:

During the past year we have endeavored to prosecute the work committed to our care with a reasonable degree of diligence.

As heretofore, our aim has been to secure, or at least obtain trace of the old records of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches, and procure histories of our congregations and of all Associate, Associate Reformed and United Presbyterian Presbyteries and Synods.

But little has been accomplished by way of additions to our stock of old records. However, we have the satisfaction to announce that the records of the Associate Reformed Synod, from the time of its organization, in 1782 to 1803, have been found. One volume of the Minutes of the Associate Presbytery of Pennsylvania has not yet been found. If this volume were obtained, (and it was in safe hands not many years ago) the records of the Associate Presbytery of Pennsylvania, and of the Associate Synod, which grew out of it, would be complete.

Accompanying this report we submit a complete list of all the Associate and Associate Reformed Presbyteries and Synods, and the whereabouts of their records as far as known.

HISTORIES OF CONGREGATIONS, PRESBYTERIES AND SYNODS.

Several weeks ago we made a call on Presbyteries, through the papers of the Church, for information in regard to old records, and for a report of the progress of the work of preparing histories of congregations and Presbyteries.

The response to this call has not been general, and hence we can give you only an approximate idea of the condition of this part of the work.

Many of the Presbyteries have obtained the history of the Presbytery and of most of the congregations, but have not had them collected and bound together as directed by the Assembly of 1876, for the reason that some of the brethren appointed to prepare histories of congregations have not completed the work assigned them.

Several very valuable histories of Presbyteries and Synods have been published during the past year, viz: The History of the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, History of the United Presbyterian Synod of New York, History of the Second Associate Reformed Synod of the West. Others have been prepared; the Associate Reformed Synod of Illinois, the First United Presbyterian Synod of the West, and the United Presbyterian Synod of Pittsburgh.

Histories of the United Presbyterian Presbytery of Monongahela and her predecessors, the Second Associate Reformed Presbytery of Pennsylvania, and the Associate Reformed Presbytery of Monongahela have been published in one volume; also, the history of the Associate Presbytery of Chartiers, and possibly some others. The Presbytery of Big Spring has published the biography of Rev. John Cuthbertson, the first Reformed Presbyterian minister in America, which is a valuable and timely contribution to our ecclesiastical history.

With the material thus accumulating, it will be comparatively easy for the future historian to write the annals of the Reformed Churches in America.

As the old records of the different Presbyteries and Synods, by direction of the Assembly of 1876, are to be retained in present hands until the work of preparing histories is completed, it might be well for the Assembly to order that Clerks of Presbyteries should be the custodians of the records of their Associate and Associate Reformed predecessors.

It has been suggested to the Committee that it would be well for the Church to have a fire-proof vault of her own as a safe depository for her old records in some central part of the Church. If the Assembly should regard the suggestion favorably, and wish to place it in some one of the buildings now belonging to the Church, we can state that a suitable vault sufficiently ample for the purpose can be placed in the Theological Seminary building in Allegheny at a cost of about three hundred dollars.

The Committee have understood that some of the brethren think it would be advantageous to organize a United Presbyterian Historical Society. This and other suggestions above mentioned, your Committee would respectfully submit to the judgment of the Assembly.

J. C. BOYD, Chairman.

ASSOCIATE AND ASSOCIATE REFORMED RECORDS.

In the following list of Associate and Associate Reformed Presbyteries and Synods we have given the name of the Presbytery or Synod, and opposite it the name of the party holding its records.

We have also included in the list those Associate and Associate Reformed Presbyteries and Synods, the records of which are lost, or in unknown hands, in the hope that the Assembly might be able to furnish some information respecting them.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The Committee appointed by the last Assembly to "confer with similar Committees from other evangelical churches to devise a plan for united effort in the cause of Temperance on the part of such churches," had a meeting at the time and place appointed by the Assembly, viz.: Tuesday, October 23, 1877, at 7 o'clock, P. M., in the Theological Seminary at Xenia, Ohio. Owing to the death of the lamented Dr. Pollock, chairman of your Committee, the meeting of the joint Committee was called to order by the undersigned, as temporary chairman. But few of those appointed by the Assembly were present, and representatives from only two other bodies—the Presbyterian and the Methodist Episcopal. The enclosed paper was prepared by a sub-committee, whose names are subjoined to it, with a view of having it submitted to the various ecclesiastical bodies for adoption as the combined declaration and testimony of the Church of Christ, on the subject of Temperance.

This paper is herewith submitted for your consideration and adoption. What further measures are necessary to bring it before the other bodies not represented in the joint Committee, it is left to your wisdom to provide.

It may be said in conclusion, that this paper, a copy of which was sent to each member of your Committee, was approved and concurred in by all those who expressed their mind about it, viz.: a majority of the Committee, and may be considered as our report on the subject referred to us.

Respectfully submitted,

J. G. CARSON, Chairman.

THE PAPER REFERRED TO IN THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

1. Drunkenness is an evil of giant proportions, having inherent and appalling malignity. It is strongly intrenched by custom, cupidity and appetite. It works wide-spread ruin in society, and destroys men's souls and bodies.

2. The manufacture, sale, and use of intoxicating liquors, except for medicinal, mechanical, or scientific purposes, are unmixed evils dishonoring to God and destructive to man.

3. To aid either of these great evils—by selling grain or hops to brewers or distillers, by making machinery for brewing or distilling, or casks to contain liquors, by leasing property on which intoxicating liquors may be made, or sold, or drank, or by any other way, is to criminally participate in this most abhorrent sin.

4. While in certain instances, when it results from inherited infirmity, drunkenness may be regarded as a misfortune, it is at the same time a sin against God and one's own body; and also a crime against society.

5. Human power, alone, whether as a pledge, an organization, a profession, or otherwise, is entirely inadequate to the complete and permanent reformation of the drunkard. Reformation from drunkenness, or any other immorality, to be effectual, must combine human effort and divine influence..

6. The Christian Church sympathizes, and should sympathize, heartily and actively, with all honest, intelligent effort to reform inebriates, and to prevent and suppress intemperance.

7. Christians must oppose the manufacture, sale and use of intoxicating beverages by all practicable methods. Legal prohibition, moral suasion, and the practice of total abstinence are demanded.

8. The Church ot Jesus Christ is an adequate agency, if faithfully consecrated to the endeavor, for the reformation of inebriates and the suppression of intemperance.

III.

* * * * * * * * *

First.—Your Committee would therefore recommend that the Board of Publication be instructed to form by-laws, defining the duties of the Corresponding Secretary, viz.:

1. To edit any periodical authorized to be published by the Board.

2. To receive all matter for publication, and submit it, with his judgment, to the Board.

3. To conduct all correspondence with authors and fix the price of copyright, subject to approval by the Board; to prepare all works for the press and be responsible for the accuracy of the same.

4. To prepare the annual report of the Board to the General Assembly, containing a full statement of the condition, wants and work of the Board, said report to be submitted to the Board for approval at its last regular meeting, previous to the meeting of the General Assembly; also to prepare a report of more general character as to the work and condition of the Board to be presented to the different Synods each year.

5. To be ex officio a member of each of the Permanent Committees, except the Auditing Committee.

Second.—Your Committee would recommend that the Board be instructed to create the office of Business Manager, and that his duties shall be as follows:

1. This officer shall be under the more immediate control of the Executive Committee, and shall take charge of the Board's buildings, books, stereotype plates and other property, as the Committee may direct.

2. He shall make all contracts for printing, binding, engraving, stereotyping and advertising; make all purchases of material used in the business; and give all orders for work or material on behalf of the Board, subject to the approval of the same Committee.

3. He shall lay before the Auditing Committee at its monthly meetings all bills due by the Board.

4. He shall take charge of sales and use all practical means to extend them; he shall give his undivided time to the Board, and not be allowed to engage in any other business; he shall receive all orders for books, and conduct all correspondence with booksellers, and other business correspondence.

5. He shall report to the Corresponding Secretary in full, as per forms adopted by this Assembly, the business of the year, in time for him to make his report to the Assembly and be adopted at the regular May meeting of the Board, previous to the meeting of the Assembly.

6. He shall report monthly to the Board the amount of the sales of each month, and any other information the Executive Committee may require.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATION TO THE PAN-PRESBYTERIAN COUNCIL.

The Council met in Edinburgh, Scotland, July 3, 1877, and continued its sessions, three each day, except on the intervening Sabbath, until the evening of the 10th.

There were present in the Council over three hundred representatives of Presbyterian organizations and associations of twenty different countries.

Among the subjects of deliberation were the "Principles of Presbyterianism," "Presbyterianism in relation to the wants and tendencies of the day," "Preaching and the training of preachers," "The Eldership, its theory and practice," "The unbelief of the present day, and how to meet it," "Presbyterian literature and the use of the press generally," "The Reformed Churches of the past and present," "The claims of the churches on the continent of Europe on other Presbyterian churches," and various aspects of the home and foreign work of the Church.

On all these subjects papers that had been carefully prepared, were read, which were followed by general discussions and the adoption of declarations of the mind of the Council on the subjects.

Some of these declarations were, perhaps, not so explicit and decided as might have been expected from such a Council, doubtless owing to the fact that this was the first meeting of the kind and the natural desire on the part of its managers to keep the Council free as possible from whatever might cause dissent or in any way disturb its harmony. Still, it seemed to us, that such a Council should have felt free, in any circumstances, to assert itself decidedly and strongly on any subject fairly before it, and especially such as was fairly within the consensus of the churches represented. To be restrained of this was to be restrained of much of its usefulness.

But, as intimated, there may have been good reasons for this restraint in this first Council. In other respects it was a grand success. The tone of its deliberations was much higher than that of some of its conclusions. The papers read and the discussions generally were of a very high order of learning and ability. And the Christian temper of the Council was admirable. The deep-toned piety, the brotherly love, the earnest devotion to all that concerned the glory of God and the salvation of man, manifested in all the proceedings, attested a presence and power of God felt and acknowledged by all.

In general effect, we feel it was for good. It was a grand demonstration of the strength and substantial unity in faith and modes of working of Calvanistic Presbyterian churches of different and distant parts of the world. It brought representatives of them into actual contact and acquaintance with each other. It tended to put the stronger in more lively sympathy with the weak, in better knowledge of their difficulties, and under a deeper sense of obligation to help them. With all its caution to keep its declarations without dissent in its general tone and testimony, it upheld strongly the great principles of its professed system of faith. It proved that among the men of this faith there was the ability to defend it and to repel all assaults of infidelity on any part of the Christian system.

In conclusion, we are glad to say, that in the devotional exercises and all the proceedings of the Council, there was nothing of which we, as a Church, could complain, or that should weaken our interest in the "Presbyterian Alliance" or its Councils. The next Council is to be held in Philadelphia, in 1880, and we would respectfully suggest that this Assembly appoint a Committee to nominate delegates to it, to report to the next Assembly.

All the ministerial delegates appointed to the Council at Edinburgh were present, and would no doubt unite with us in this report if present or within reach.

MEMORIAL OF THE FIRST PRESBYTERY OF OHIO.

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—Influenced only by a desire to promote the best interests of the great mission work of the Church in our own land, and believing that the efficiency of this department of Christian effort would be greatly increased by a few important changes in the administration of this work, we therefore present for your consideration this Memorial, and respectfully ask that the following changes may be made, viz:

I. The consolidation of the three departments known as "The Board of Home Missions," "The Board of Church Extension" and "The Board of Missions to the Freedmen."

The following reasons may be given:

1. The aim of these Boards is substantially the same, the evangelization of our own land.

2. A union of these interests, and their administration by the same body of men would not only prevent the possibility of any conflict, but would secure the entire harmony and unity of interest so necessary in every feature of mission work in our own land.

II. The election of a Board of eighteen members, two from each Synod, to serve for a term of six years, one member to be elected from each Synod every three years. The members constituting this Board shall be nominated by the various Synods, and this nomination confirmed by the General Assembly. This Board shall meet annually, two weeks preceding each meeting of the General Assembly, and shall perform the duties now performed by the three local Boards and the General Committee of Home Missions.

The following reasons are submitted:

1. The Church at large is interested, and should be represented in the administration of this work.

2. This Board will be representive, and at the same time not unwieldy in service.

3. The great advantage of a fixed policy will be gained to the Church by the lengthened term of service from year to year of the persons having this work in charge.

III. The election for —— years by the General Assembly, of a General Secretary, who shall be a member of this Board ex officio.

The General Secretary shall have full power to act in all cases of emergency that may arise during the year, not provided for by the Board, and shall give his undivided attention to the interests of this work.

The following reason may be given:

The judgment of one individual constantly in contact with the interests represented will be found to be more valuable than the opinions of those whose attention is engrossed by a multiplicity of other cares. Your memorialists therefore ask of you that immediate action may be instituted, looking toward the final accomplishment of the ends set forth in this memorial.

That you may be guided by divine wisdom in this as in all other matters that may come before you, and that you may spend a pleasant and profitable session, is the prayer of your petitioners.

By order of Presbytery.
